LARGE COMMUNITY SHOPPING CENTER WILL BE BUILT

San Fernando and Brand for Business Improvements to Cost Many Thousands

Plans for starting a new community shopping center are culminating in the construction of a business block at the corner of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard and every lot in the triangle block has been sold by the W. A. Heitman company, selling agents for the Richardson estate.

The Roy L. Kent company was awarded the contract for the largest one-story building in the city by George B. Karr, owner of the northwest corner lots at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard, who recently received blue prints from George W. Eldredge, his architect.

It will be Spanish-Italian stucco architecture with ornamental lights, red tile trim roof and stucco ornaments over twelve arched doorways.

Investment of $45,000

It will cover 172 feet on Brand boulevard frontage and 156 on San Fernando road, giving a total of 12,200 square feet of floor space. A $45,000 investment on the part of Mr. Karr is reported.

Claude Caswell is the lessee of the public market which will be on the corner and there will be six stalls including Mr. Caswell's market with a $5,000 refrigerating plant. Hs is subletting the grocery concession to F. W. Franklin and fruits and vegetables to George Taylor. A bakery, delicatessen, lunchroom and florist are figuring on getting space. Public restrooms in the rear will be an attractive feature.

Bringing People Here

In the two store rooms on San Fernando road it is planned to have a druggist and dry goods merchant, the latter to carry a line of light shelf hardware. In the two stores on Brand boulevard, one may be used for a barber shop and cigar stand, while the other will be used by Mr. Karr for his Baldwin Custom shirt factory.

In the latter establishment twelve or fifteen operators will be employed at the start, according to Mr. Karr, who is moving not only his family from Parsons, Kan., but bringing Ralph Dick here as foreman. A home for the Karr family is being rushed to completion on North Louise street. This is costing an additional $5250.

Mothers' Club Gives Ghost Dance to Help Acacia School Fund

The "ghost dance" given Thursday night at Knights of Pythias hall on South Brand boulevard, under the auspices of the Mothers' Club, Parent-Teacher association, of the Acacia avenue school, proved a decided success, both as regards to the jolly time and also financially, about $20 being cleared. Music for dancing was furnished by Ed Moniot's three-piece orchestra.

During the intermission at 10:30 o'clock, Casey Golden, of Los Angeles, sang two Irish ballads. Gould Moore also gave two splendid pianologues. The hall was very appropriately decorated for the occasion with cornstalks, pumpkins and black and orange crepe paper.

Nearly all who attended the dance were in Halloween costume. The committee in charge included Mrs. J. Bennett, Mrs. F. G. Hartman and Mrs. E. W. Evans.

Halloween Luncheon Given in Behalf of Number of Friends

Mrs. George H. Bentley, Mrs. J. Roger Bentley and Mrs. J. Ray Bentley were hostesses at a very delightful five-course Hallowe'en luncheon at 1 o'clock Friday at the home of Mrs. J. Ray Bentley, 1361 North Columbus avenue. Tables were beautifully decorated with orange candles and marigolds, with favors and fun makers carrying out the Hallowe'en idea also.

The invited guests included Mrs. Jennie Doxsee, Mrs. Park Arnold, Mrs. Jene Moore, Mrs. A. J. Maxwell, Mrs. Oren Howard, Mrs. Grover Adams, Mrs. Ray Galvin, Mrs. Roy Kent, Mrs. L. Grey, Mrs. Rene Olin, Mrs. P. L. Hatch, Mrs. Bob Morrow, Mrs. Harry Chase, Mrs. Fred Abbey, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. M. L. Russell, Mrs. Clarence Kalbaugh, Mrs. George Harris and Mrs. Glen Ely.

DANCE TO HELP CHILDREN

The Hallowe'en dance given in the Pearl Keller hall last night by the committee of Glendale women for the Monte Vista Home for undernourished children of Los Angeles county, of which Mrs. R. W. Meeker is chairman, was attended by more than fifty couple. Decorations of French marigolds and palms were used. The exact amount which was made will be announced as soon as all tickets have been turned in. This amount will be used to finish paying for the equipment which was purchased by the Glendale ladies for the kitchen at this institution.

Rev. H. G. Preston Well Pleased With New Church Duties

REV. HARLEY G. PRESTON
Who recently arrived in Glendale to take charge of the West Glendale Methodist church. This picture shows him in his uniform, for he enlisted as a private in the world war.

Over two million men were in the A. E. F. One of them was the Rev. Harley G. Preston, new pastor of the West Glendale Methodist church, who was in Paris on leave upon the occasion of ex-President Wilson's first visit to France and saw him enter the Quai d'Orsay. He feels that a large part of the present international complications are due to Wilson's blunder in refusing to counsel with other American statesmen.

One week ago Rev. and Mrs. Preston and baby Virginia moved to their new home at 215 South Pacific avenue from Moorpark, where he was pastor previous to the recent official conference of the Methodist church. He is proud to be a member of the American Legion.

"I am very much pleased with Glendale," said Rev. Harley G. Preston, today. "The folks here have certainly been kind to me. There are certainly some fine people here. I haven't had a chance to get acquainted with all the members of my congregation personally yet, but I want to meet them all as soon as possible.

"All the members of the church seem to be as enthusiastic as I am about the coming year's work and the opportunities here. I feel that there is a field here for big things.

Comment was made by Rev. Preston upon the excellent personnel of the church officials and officers whom he characterized as "absolutely A-I." He spoke highly of the business-like manner in which the church business was transacted at the last board meeting.

Mrs. Colin Cable Hostess to Music Section Yesterday

More than sixty members and friends of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club and members of the executive board were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Colin Cable, 505 South Columbus avenue, who again proved her graciousness as a hostess. Her home was artistically decorated with bouquets of yellow and lavender chrysanthemums.

At the short business meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. C. A. Parker, in the absence of the curator, Mrs. C. L. Marlenee, details were discussed regarding the Tuesday Afternoon club program, which is to be given by the section, the third Tuesday in November.

The program for the afternoon included the following numbers: "The Ocean Tramp" (Watts), and "In the Dark, in the Dew" (Combs), beautifully rendered by Mrs. Laura Stevenson Spang, soprano; vocal selections, "All for You" (DeHadelot), and "My Laddie" (Niedlingler), Mrs. Harry McMullin; "The Skylark" (Letchetisky), piano selection by Mrs. Rush.

Most delicious refreshments of home-made ice cream, cake and punch were served at the close of the afternoon.

TEACHERS HOSTS AT PARTY

The teachers and officers of the Junior department of the Sunday school of the First Methodist church entertained about 125 of the children at a Hallowe'en masquerade party in the social hall of the church last night. Decorations of marigolds and black and orange crepe paper were used. At the close of the evening's jollification refreshments were served.

FOOTHILL CLUB TO MEET

The Glendale Foothill Improvement association of which E. H. Botsford is president, will meet Tuesday night, November 1, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Botsford hall, second ten acres east of Grand View avenue on Glenwood road, formerly Sixth street. A general invitation has been extended members and others interested to attend. Refreshments will be served at the close of the business meeting.

MARION ADDISON IS BRIDE OF JOSEPH M'KENZIE CATES

Very Charming Ceremony Held on Friday Night in Home of Bride's Parents

A pretty home wedding took place at 8 o'clock last night, Friday, October 28, 1921, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Addison, 130 North Belmont street, when in the presence of forty relatives and friends their daughter, Miss Marion Addison, was united in marriage to Joseph McKenzie Cates of Eagle Rock, Rev. C. R. Norton officiating.

The living room of the Addison home was beautiful with decorations of greenery and pink and white carnations and dahlias. A canopy of asparagus fern and pink and white carnations was suspended over one of the windows, in front of which the young couple stood during the ceremony. In front of this were two large vases of pink dahlias. From the center of the room to the four corners were suspended garlands of greenery and flowers.

Very Pretty Effect

Just before the wedding ceremony Miss Leone Brice sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. E. Starkey. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was also played by Mrs. Starkey, sister of the bride. As the bridal party entered all the lights except those of a rose colored floor lamp in the living room, were turned off, making a very pretty effect.

The bride wore a gown of white silk canton crepe and carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds. Her wedding veil was caught back with orange blossoms. She was accompanied by Mrs. Clark Christy, at whose wedding she had acted as bridesmaid about a year ago. Mrs. Christy was also gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Reception Follows

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room, which was also decorated with pink and white carnations. Refreshments of a large wedding cake and other pink and white cakes and ice cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Cates later left for parts unknown on a honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a going away suit, hat and shoes, all of dark brown. Mr. and Mrs. Cates will be at home to their friends after December first at Eagle Rock.

Mrs. Cates has been a resident of Glendale for more than fourteen years, coming here from Boston. She is a graduate of Glendale Union high school and is a member of the First Methodist church. Mr. Cates has been a resident of Eagle Rock for about two years.

Prior to her marriage Mrs. Cates was the guest of honor at many showers and social events given for her and also received a beautiful array of wedding gifts from her many friends in Glendale and vicinity.

High School Senior Dance Enjoyed by Many

Glendale's imaginary town clock struck midnight—and marked the conclusion last night at the girls' gymnasium of the high school of the annual senior dance.

Today those who attended are still talking about the success of the affair, the good punch served and the enjoyable frolic.

About seventy-five couples occupied the floor. Invitations were confined to seniors, alumni and a few specially invited guests.

Music was furnished by four of the musicians from Al Tura's Blue Moon orchestra. At the end of the seventh dance there was a balloon bombardment.

The hall was decorated in the class colors. From the nine lights were suspended streamers of orange and black. At each end of the room were large pumpkins in token of Hallowe'en.

Among those who were present were: Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holland, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and her baby nephew, William Richardson Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Henderson, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Yard, Miss Myrtle Pulliam, Miss Iva Hunter, Miss Jane Snyder, Miss Mona Gardner, Miss Esther Crandall, Miss Welhelmina Hobush, Miss Jeanette Abel and Fred F. Borncamp.

AUTO OWNER IS PUZZLED

A. T. Seidenglanz, of the Circle Real Estate company, 120 North Brand boulevard, put in a little over time last night with a rule and a piece of chalk trying to determine which mark on the curb represented fifteen feet from the hydrant. Mr. Seidenglanz parked his car near the office, and a few minutes later found it tagged like a Christmas present. The writing on the curb shows two boundary limits on the north side of the hydrant, says Mr. Seidenglanz.

FRANCES BOURNE HOSTESS

Frances Bourne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bourne, will entertain her classmates of the eighth grade at her home in Eagle Rock tonight with a Hallowe'en party. Appropriate decorations have been provided and after playing a number of Hallowe'en games the guests will be served refreshments in a witches' cave.

FEAR OF REVOLUTION OUTBREAK IN LOWER CALIFORNIA

CALEXICO, Cal., Oct. 29.—Officials of lower California, it was learned today, are taking every precaution to prevent a possible revolution. Troops have been scattered along the border from Yuma to San Diego at the direction of General Rodriguez, commander of the federal forces in this district.

SINN FEIN HIGH COUNCIL HOLDS LENGTHY CONFERENCE

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—The conference of the high council of the Sinn Fein with Eamonn DeValera presiding, did not break up until early today. DeValera made a speech on the Irish political situation after which constitutional organization matters were discussed. It was said that certain constitutional matters had been disposed of.

PROPOSES PACIFIC COAST TOUR FOR ARMS DELEGATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The secretary of state would be authorized to invite all the delegates to the conference on armament limitation and the newspaper correspondents reporting it to make an extended tour of the country and particularly the Pacific coast, as the guests of the government, under a concurrent resolution introduced in the senate by Senator Stanfield, republican, of Oregon.

ILLNESS OF SENATOR LODGE HALTS TAX BILL PASSAGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The illness of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, contributed to the situation in the senate today, which forced the republican majority to abandon its plan to force the final passage of the pending compromise tax bill by tonight. It was explained that Senator Lodge was confined to his residence by a severe sore throat, and would be unable to attend today's session.

HALF OF TOWN REPORTED DESTROYED BY CLOUDBURST

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 29.—Answering an emergency call from Britannia Beach, five doctors and eight nurses are today rushing there by fast steamer, as a result of a cloudburst which struck the little town last night and swept away half of its houses. Meager reports indicate that seven or eight persons are missing and that a large number have been injured. Communication with Britannia Beach has been virtually severed.

MARSHAL FOCH FAILS TO SEE WILSON WHEN HE CALLS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Moving with the rapidity that characterized his tactical thrusts along the western front, Marshal Ferdinand Foch became acquainted with official Washington today to the accompaniment of the cheers and plaudits from hundreds of admirers wherever he went. From the white house to the capitol, and to the various departments, the famous allied generalissimo was whirled. The marshal wound up his morning list of calls with a futile attempt to see Woodrow Wilson.

THREE INJURED, GUESTS DRIVEN OUT, IN HOTEL FIRE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Three were injured and more than a hundred guests were driven to the street in scanty attire when fire threatened the Winton hotel early today. P. D. Mortimer, clerk, was badly burned fighting the flames, which he discovered in the basement. Mrs. Lillie Chambers jumped from a fourth story window to an adjoining building, suffering a fractured hip, and Fireman Ralph Reed was overcome by smoke. The fire was controlled after doing several thousand dollars' damage.

YOUTHFUL BANDIT IS KILLED IN ATTEMPT AT HOLDUP

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Efforts were made today to identify a youthful bandit killed shortly before dawn at a gasoline filling station between Riverside and Colton when two desperadoes attempted to hold up A. D. Berger. At the same time Los Angeles police sought the accomplice of the slain bandit. It was believed that the dead youth's companion may have fled to this city. The bandit was shot by Allen Berger, son of A. D. Berger, who went to his father's assistance when the bandits appeared.

EVELYN NESBIT OUT OF DANGER; RECEIVES $16,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Evelyn Nesbit, former wife of Harry Thaw, who yesterday attempted suicide by taking morphine was reported to be out of danger today. A report from her apartment, over the Evelyn Nesbit Specialty Shop, said she was getting along well but had not spoken of her act. Unknown to her, $16,000 had been realized from the sale of Miss Nesbit's objets d'art within the last two days, enough to tide her over the financial difficulties which caused her to attempt to take her life, it was learned today.

TWO FIREMEN LOSE LIVES IN FIRE AT SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 29.—Two firemen lost their lives, four others were overcome by smoke and a dozen had narrow escapes when a floor collapsed early today in fighting a blaze in the basement of a business block at Tenth and X streets which did damage estimated at $50,000. S. T. Peters and Jack Henry were overcome by smoke while battling the fire in the basement. They were rescued and rushed to a hospital but died despite all efforts to revive them. The Hippodrome theatre was one of the buildings endangered by fire.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE OFFICIALS RECALLED, BELIEF

BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 29.—Indications that Governor Lynn J. Frazier, Attorney General Wm. Lemke and Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor John N. Hagen, non-partisan leaguers, have been recalled from office as the result of yesterday's election, were seen in incomplete returns available at noon. With the count in from 999 precincts out of 2094 in the state, R. A. Nestos, independent candidate for governor, was leading Frazier by 27,044 votes. The count was: Nestos 81,195; Frazier 54,751. Other independent candidates were leading their non-partisan opponents by similar pluralities.

BUILDING PERMITS FOR OCTOBER NOW NEAR $600,000

Total for Year to Date Is More Than Four Million Dollars and Is Still Growing

With approximately $600,000 in building reported in October and more than $4,000,000 for the year, there is every indication that Glendale will have close to $6,000,000 in construction under way during 1921. Three contracts already let, for which no permits have been granted as yet, amount to more than $75,000 and it may be that they will be included in October's total Monday night.

Building activities on South Brand boulevard are very noticeable while all sections are being benefited by residential construction.

Building permits issued since Wednesday are as follows:

Hal Davenport, 4 room stores, 1257-1259 South Brand	$ 8,000
Florence Sargent, residence and garage, 1632 Opechee Way	7,000
M. L. McBride, 7 rooms, 1310 North Maryland avenue	6,270
George R. Miller, 7 rooms, 835 Kenneth Road	5,500

Mrs. Henry Brummel Hostess to Members Milford Card Club

The Milford Street Card Club was entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. Henry Brummel on West Wilson. The decorations were in Hallowe'en colorings, with black cats and pumpkins arranged most effectively. The guests were ushered into a darkened room, when they were told a most thrilling story by Mrs. O. B. Dowd, of the death of Mr. Jones, following which bits of his mangled body were handed to the horrified listeners who by that time were supposed to have forgotten the heat of the day in the chills of terror that were going over them. Entering the dining room, a delicious luncheon was served, and the guests presented their hostess with a yellow bowl, for her home.

The afternoon was spent playing five hundred, Mrs. Sadie McPherson taking first place with a score of 3500, and Mrs. Southard, the consolation prize.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Reed Huestis. The guests were Mrs. Eustace Young, Mrs. O. B. Dowd, Mrs. Vinton of Los Angeles, Mrs. Reed Huestis, Mrs. Horace Hosford, Mrs. J. H. Southard, Mrs. J. D. Rathbun, Mrs. H. B. Fletcher, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, Mrs. Sadie Mc Pherson and Mrs. Strain.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fitz and Daughter Here

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fitz and their daughter, Miss Alice Fitz, arrived yesterday from Fort Dodge, Ia. Mr. Fitz is connected with the Fitz Investment company, Colorado and Verdugo road, and an uncle to R. F. Fitz, 308 North Louise street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Fitz, meanwhile, have returned to their home in Manson, Ia. They have visited California many times, but usually remained in Los Angeles. This season they came to Glendale—and, naturally, have swallowed the "California bug" at last, and expect to return soon to remain permanently.

MANY AT ALL-DAY SESSION

The all-day meeting of N. P. Banks post, Women's Relief Corps, which was held yesterday in G. A. R. hall on South Glendale avenue, was attended by more than 225 members of these two organizations. In the absence of Mrs. Alma Dutton, president of the corps, Mrs. Cortz presided. At that time three new members were taken into the organization. After lunch a short program was given, which was in charge of Reverend C. R. Norton. Talks were enjoyed from several of the old veterans. Mrs. Cora Pixley gave a reading on "The Definition of An Old Soldier," which was greatly enjoyed and met with the applause of the old soldiers.

R. T. W. CLASS TO MEET

The R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, November 1, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. L. Hatch, 638 North Kenwood street.

J. M. RHOADES IS GUEST

A luncheon today marking the formal opening of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce work for a year was attended by James M. Rhoades, secretary of the local chamber.

GLENDALE AVENUE PETITIONS BEING READILY SIGNED

About 500 Signatures Already Secured, Is Announced at Association Session

Approximately 500 signatures have been secured on the petitions relative to railroad traffic conditions on Glendale avenue, which have been circulated the past week by members of the Glendale Avenue Improvement association, it was learned at the meeting of that organization held in the council chamber of the city hall last night. All petitions were not at the meeting last night but making an estimate on the number that was there Harry C. Levey, 811 South Glendale avenue, president of the association, and Frank Marek, secretary and treasurer, 212 North Verdugo road, announced that the number of names already obtained would probably exceed 500.

The reports of a few members who had circulated the petitions showed much encouragement and it was stated by Mr. Levey that at the next regular meeting of the association, Friday night, November 4, a complete return will be made and the committee named to confer with the city council relative to appointing a committee to meet with representatives of the Salt Lake branch of the Union Pacific railroad for considering certain measures in adjusting the steam freight traffic on Glendale avenue.

Consider Japanese

It was announced at the meeting that the possibility of colored residents residing on Glendale avenue had been removed, and some speculation was made as to Japanese living in Glendale.

Secretary Frank Marek stated that with the expiration of the present leases held by Japanese the matter would adjust itself.

In reporting on the progress of his work, Edwin Opdyke, 1263 South Glendale, said:

It has been stated to me by prominent ones that this matter of working for the improvement of Glendale avenue should not be considered for the good of the avenue alone, but for the good of the whole of Glendale.

"I called on every property owner in my district and there were only four who declined to sign."

Few Refuse to Sign

N. La Blanc, 1119 South Glendale avenue, who had obtained 100 signatures on the petitions he circulated, stated that he had visited seven-eights of the residents in his district and had met with only a few who did not sign.

Claude Harness, 424 North Glendale avenue, stated that he found only one in his district who did not sign.

In commenting on the work of the association and what it signified to the whole city, Secretary Marek announced that the building permits for the month of October would probably set a new record, and that Glendale was growing in every section.

Presbyterian Men Meet and Discuss $50,000 Campaign

Glendale must have a larger Presbyterian church.

This was the consensus of opinion of the fifty-seven men of the church who met in the Sunday school room last night to discuss next week's campaign for $50,000 to complete the building fund and to enable a large Gothic church edifice to be erected on the corner of Harvard and Louise streets.

Crowded conditions in the present church building were touched upon only lightly because they were familiar to all present. The facts were brought out, however, that the Sunday school has only accommodations for a few more than 200 and had 540 in attendance last Sabbath, and that the expansion of both church and Sunday school is limited until larger quarters can be obtained.

The discussion followed a supper served by some of the women of the church: Mrs. J. J. Davis, Mrs. R. P. Isitt, Mrs. M. P. Harrison, Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, Mrs. J. M. Banker, Mrs. John Colvin, Miss L. Fielding and Mrs. L. W. Sinclair.

Dr. J. K. Gilkerson, chairman of the finance committee, presided at the meeting. One wing of the table was occupied by "The Browns," headed by H. L. Brown, 406 North Maryland avenue, and the other wing by "The Bairds," led by A. L. Baird, 637 North Orange street. Among others present were Rev. W. E. Edmonds, Rev. Louis Tinning, Rex C. Kelly, H. L. Finley, G. D. McDill, James Cooper and Roy King.

JOLLY MASQUERADE PARTY

The social committee of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mildred Thompson is chairman, were in charge of the jolly Hallowe'en masquerade party given last night in the bungalow of the church, which had been decorated appropriately for the occasion with black and orange crepe paper, corn stalks, etc. Several humorous sketches were given during the evening, including "Mutt and Jeff," "A Witches' Stunt." Bobbing for apples and games were also enjoyed. Refreshments included pumpkin pie. There were about sixty members who attended the party.

REPORT SEVERAL THEFTS

Ten undesirables were run out of town yesterday by the police. Coincidentally there were reports of the theft of carpenter tools from H. A. Hays and S. B. Otis of 1128 East Elk avenue who are working on a job at 426 South Adams street. Harry Greenberg was picked up this morning with an alarm clock in his possession which had been pilfered from the Charles B. Guthrie real estate office at Los Feliz Road and Brand boulevard. A gold shaving set was reported stolen from the Baker Ford rental agency, 110 North Kenwood street.

TWO AUTO TRUCKS CRASH

D. Bolchini, truck driver, smashed into another truck piloted by C. E. Philips of 458 West Elk avenue last night, according to the police report today. Several other minor smashes are on record.

CITIES URGED TO REMOVE DANGER OF BREAD LINES BY MUNICIPAL COOPERATION ON JOBLESS PROBLEM

This scene on the streets of New York is typical of what may happen through the United States, and happen soon, unless the whole nation, through its municipalities, organizes to ward off the unemployment crisis, conservatively estimated as likely to affect 4,000,000 men and their families.

President Harding, during the recent national conference at Washington on unemployment, appealed to the mayors of every city to organize emergency committees, combining all the interests of the community in a concerted machine to create work for the idle.

Spruce-up campaigns, a public employment bureau, repairs in streets and public buildings, direction of welfare efforts to jobs instead of hand-outs and the stimulation of industry in every possible way are among the steps recommended by the conference.

Nationally, many moves have been made by the government to relieve the situation. Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce and chairman of the president's unemployment conference, has conferred with the heads of the nation's major industries and has secured pledges of co-operation. Legislation looking toward permanent betterment of conditions was recommended by the conference, and specific subjects for such legislation were pointed out.

Every element of the national conference agreed, however, that municipal action is the real hope so far as the emergency is concerned.

Mayors and members of municipal emergency committees throughout the country have been invited to make full use of the holdover committee, under Colonel Arthur Woods, which will function in the department of commerce as a co-ordinating agency for the ideas and action of local units.

"There can be no crisis in peacetime more deserving of every man's brains and energy than this present unemployment situation," Colonel Woods said in a recent address, "and the only solution is for the nation to rise to the emergency as it did in the crucial days of the war. The bureau in Washington is going to devote itself to practical suggestion and coordination, not theory, and we hope the country will use it freely. This drive is one that no citizen and no community can afford to neglect."

PAST MATRONS AND PATRONS OBSERVE SPECIAL NIGHT

Halloween Party Is Given at Meeting Order of Eastern Star; Unique Features

A special treat was in store for those who attended the meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star last night, which was observed as Past Matrons' and Patrons' night, and after which a party was held in the banquet room of the Masonic Temple with the men of the lodge acting as hosts.

Past matrons and patrons who officiated at the lodge meeting last night were as follows:

Mrs. Sallie Campbell Braden, worthy matron; Jas. Wyvell, worthy patron; Mrs. E. U. Emery, associate matron; Mrs. Mayme Pollock, conductress; Miss Cora Hickman, associate conductress; Mrs. Mary O. Ryan, chaplain; Miss Fredonia Borthick, Adah; Mrs. Warren Roberts, Esther; Mrs. Jennie Phillips, Martha.

Ballot on Candidates

The following four candidates were balloted on and elected to become members of Glen Eyrie chapter: Lily Irene Matthisen, Lucy Elizabeth Young, Katherine Young Reiner and Ruth Green.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Orma V. Naudain announced that the mem of the chapter were hosts at a party given in the banquet room. As the guests entered the banquet room they were given cards with twenty-four blank spaces and were to fill in these with the names of moving picture stars whose photographs appeared scattered about the room on small tables.

Prizes Are Awarded

Prizes were awarded Mrs. A. J. Plunkett and Arvin Wormer for having guessed correctly the largest number of names.

This was followed by several games of bunko, high score being made by Mrs. James Wyvell and Mr. Smithson.

Suggestive of the Hallowe'en season the hall had been appropriately decorated with orange and black festoons and corn stalks. Refreshments of sandwiches, olives, apples, coffee and pumpkin pie were served under the direction of Fred Deal, Robert Grumbling, W. W. Worley, Warren Roberts, W. S. Rattray, F. H. Vesper, E. U. Emery, John Everson, Dr. Roy Hogue, and others.

Anniversary Dance Will Be Given by Elks' Lodge Tonight

The members of the entertainment committee of the Glendale lodge of Elks are planning on a record crowd of followers of the terpsichorean art attending the annual Hallowe'en and anniversary dance to be given in the social hall of the club tonight. Novel and appropriate decorations have been artistically distributed throughout the hall, and this with a number of additional surprises, will constitute an evening of special features that are in store for the guests.

When opportunity calls for a girl these days, it has to wait until she gets all her false hair on, and often goes away without her.

Are You "Perfect Man?"
Building for Glendale
Welcome Marshal Foch
Read the Advertising!

By Gil A. Cowan

ANDRE de la Croux, who is visiting in Los Angeles, is said by Audrey Munson to be a "perfect man." Audrey ought to know, being quite a "perfect woman." His age is 23, height, 5 feet, 7½ inches; weight, 160 pounds; hair, brown; eyes, hazel; complexion, fair; chest, normal 38 and full 43; neck, 15; forearm, 12¾; biceps, 13½; thigh, 22; calf, 14½; ankle, 8¾; waist, 28; reach, 69½.

There are specifications for you to measure up to if you are a man. Mr. de la Croux is a veteran of the "Blue Devils" in the world war and is champion ski-jumper of Switzerland and France. He wears the croix-de-guerre and keeps physically fit for another fight.

More young men today are working harder pushing and kicking a pigskin about a field of honor somewhere than many of them will ever work in private life.

There is something about the enthusiasm of a football contest that keys the collegian and high school boy to a higher pitch than efforts in useful occupations.

Had you happened to have been around the high school athletic field here yesterday afternoon and heard the lusty cheering and strenuous playing in one of these contests you would appreciate Mr. Edison's statement that human limitations are an unknown quantity if a person is interested in what he or she is doing.

A great welcome is given Ferdinand Foch, marshal of France, on his arrival at Washington. He will attend the American Legion convention in Kansas City and plans to tour the country. Honor and respect is due this French hero and today he is the guest of President Harding.

In the advertising columns of The Glendale Evening News each Saturday there is one page devoted to the building activities in this city. A message is contained therein that every young man and woman, and older ones, too, should read. Home ownership is the subject preached.

On other pages you will find automobiles advertised. If you do not own one, look around and find out how many people can afford to do without cars after they have bought one and realize the advantages of motoring. Immediately you will find that practically everyone is satisfied that a machine is the solution to transportation and pleasure problems.

Look about the paper a bit more this evening and if it isn't too late see one of the shows that are advertised. Both theatres offer excellent programs, vaudeville and pictures, equal to anything the city provides in the way of entertainment.

You can "buy at home" for amusement as well as anything else.

PERCEPTION

"He's tactful."

"Think so?"

"When I gave him my excuse for being late he said it was better than none."

"Where is the tact?"

"That was his easy way of letting me know that I had a poor excuse."

LOCAL CHAPTER OF RED CROSS WILL HEAR REPORTS

Regional Conference Will Be Held in Pasadena; Large Program Is Arranged

Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross, of which Mrs. H. E. Bartlett is chairman, will be included in the regional conference which will be held October 31 and November 1 in Pasadena. The meetings will be held in the Chamber of Commerce room in the east building, Hotel Green. The program will include discussion of Red Cross operations in the communities represented at the conference.

The first day will be brought to a close with a big mass meeting, at which Captain Paul Perigord of the French high commission will be the principal speaker. Colonel George Filmer, manager of the Pacific division has been invited to preside at the conference and speak at the first day luncheon to be given at Hotel Maryland.

Host at Luncheon

Pasadena Chamber of Commerce is taking much interest in the plans for the conference and will entertain the delegates at luncheon at Hotel Green on the second day.

A half day session of the conference Tuesday, November 1, will be followed by a motor drive through Pasadena. The Busch Gardens will be visited by the delegates through the courtesy of Mrs. Busch and the American Legion.

W. H. Vedder, chairman of the chapter, and Miss Anna C. Stryke, secretary of the chapter, are both devoting much time to the conference plans. Miss Bernice Clark, representative from Pacific Division headquarters, is co-operating with the Pasadena committee in work through the chapter towns called in for the meeting.

Those in Conference

Chapters included in the conference are: Pasadena, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Anaheim, Glendale, Claremont, Long Beach, Monrovia, Fullerton, Newport Beach, Pomona, Riverside, Sierra Madre, Alhambra-San Gabriel, San Diego, El Centro, Calexico, Barstow, Banning, Chino, Colton, Cucamonga, Ontario, Redlands, Upland, Santa Monica, San Pedro, Santa Ana, Whittier, Ojai, Ventura, San Luis Obispo, Santa Maria, Lompoc and Santa Barbara.

Other Red Cross regional conferences will be held at the following cities during the coming month: Santa Cruz, November 4; Sacramento, November 4-5; Fresno, November 8 and 9.

HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD

A Hallowe'en party was held in the social hall of the Congregational church last night by the members of the Sunday school class of girls of which Mrs. Blake Franklin is teacher, and which was attended by more than seventy friends. A Hallowe'en play, participated in by the members of the class, provided a great deal of amusement. Decorations were typical of Hallowe'en, with witches, spooks, etc., in evidence. Candied apples, candy, punch, etc., were sold during the evening. The class cleared more than $27.

Every Month You Bury Your Rent Money You're Saying Good Bye to Your Hopes of Owning Your Home.

Stop it. It isn't at all in keeping with the common sense you use in other things. It's a wasteful habit—this giving away your rent money every month—when the same money could be buying you a comfortable home you could say "is mine."

Locals and Personals

Mrs. A. K. Crawford of 301 North Cedar street had as her guest yesterday Mrs. DeVore of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing were dinner guests last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Neil of 360 West Colorado street.

Mrs. D. W. Stephenson of 327 West Cypress street was the luncheon guest Wednesday of Mrs. John C. Wilson of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Nellie D. Wilbur of 221 North Belmont street has returned from a five weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Reynolds, at San Diego.

Dr. and Mrs. Q. J. Rowley of Los Angeles were in this city last night as the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley of 334 West Vine street.

Mrs. S. A. Trowbridge of 437 Burchett street is expected home today from Bishop, where she has been spending the past two weeks visiting her sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack St. Claire and Miss Alva St. Claire have sold the family home at 1428 South Glendale avenue and moved to 116 East Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Botsford of Glenwood road had as their guests for the week-end their cousins, Miss Dorothy Botsford and Miss Wilma Botsford of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Edward Henry Botsford of Glenwood road entertained with a luncheon and card party Tuesday for a Los Angeles club. She was assisted in caring for her twelve guests by her sister, Mrs. S. E. Allen of 352 West Lomita avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fish of 308 North Louise street have just returned from a six months' business trip to Fort Dodge, Iowa. While in the east Mr. Fish closed up his business affairs and will now remain in Glendale permanently.

The Camp Fire Girls will hold a Hallowe'en party tonight at the home of Miss Dorothy West, 446 West Elk avenue. A variety of weird creatures will be there, including black cats, goblins, witches and ghosts, and an "unearthly" time is anticipated.

Mrs. L. G. Parker of 343 West Lomita is now at home to her friends after spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Higley of Cleveland, Ohio. Her son-in-law, Rev. A. P. Higley, is pastor of the Euclid avenue Presbyterian church of Cleveland.

Mrs. William E. Grigg of 319 West Wilson avenue has just returned from a ten weeks' trip in the east, where she visited friends and relatives in Washington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York City, Albany and Troy, N. Y. She had a very pleasant trip but is glad to be back in Glendale again.

Mrs. O. W. Andresen and Mrs. Ellen Kapus of 1241 South Central avenue entertained as their luncheon guests Thursday, Mrs. Andy Stephenson, Mrs. Dwight Stephenson, Mrs. John Hobbs, Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mrs. Marshall Pearson and Miss Helen Kapus.

Bud Rose, commander of the Theodore C. Koelhen Post of the American Legion at Eagle Rock, was in Glendale yesterday. Mr. Ross and Jack St. Claire, 233 South Brand boulevard, returned from overseas upon the same voyage of the Matsonia. Every so often they have to get together and compare notes.

Mrs. H. W. Sloat of 612 West Doran street returned last night rom Medford, Oklahoma, where she has been spending the past three months visiting relatives and getting her furniture packed to ship to California and Glendale, where she expects to make her permanent home. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. Boltie, who will spend the winter here.

The Women's Union Label league, No. 400 of which Mrs. Oliver Thompson is president, will give a Hallowe'en social next Monday evening at K. P. hall, Park avenue and Brand boulevard. The committee in charge will include Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Jack Hale, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. A. D. Hurd. Members of Carpenters' local, No. 563, and Painters' local, No. 713, and their friends have been extended a general invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kennedy and daughter, Erline, and son, Gail, of Omulga, Okla., have just arrived in Glendale at the end of a very pleasant summer's camping trip which has extended over a period of four months. They left Oklahoma in June and traveled leisurely through Colorado and Idaho, camping when tired of motoring, and thoroughly enjoyed life in the open. They are now at the home of N. H. Stanley's cousin, Mrs. Kennedy, and will remain here for the winter, if not permanently.

Mrs. Margaret A. Campbell and daughter, Miss Nettie B. Campbell, arrived Friday noon, after spending two months in Clarion, Pa. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Boicourt, 534 East Windsor road, until they find a satisfactory location for themselves. They sold their home at 316 East Dryden two months ago, and went east, expecting to remain, but they are explaining to their surprised friends that they became so homesick for Glendale and Glendale people, that the east held no charms for them.

D. H. Horning of 519 East Windsor road arrived Friday morning from Phoenix, Ariz., where he has been looking after business interests the last four weeks. He found business conditions depressing, and at the end of his stay, came home with the impression that he did not see things improving. Many who were prosperous farmers of the Salt River valley, ploughed up their alfalfa fields and sold their cattle, to invest in cotton, are now in straitened circumstances, and the general depression, resulting from the slump in the cotton market, is being felt by the merchants and banks as well as the farmers.

Only 1 in 10,000!

Supt. Wm. C. Graves of the "Jas. C. King Home for Old Men," made this remarkable statement in a recent lecture on "The Broken Family," given to a class in sociology in the University of Chicago: "You have one chance in 10,000 of supporting yourself when you reach seventy. In the U. S. there are approximately a million and a quarter former wage-earners, 65 years and older, dependent on public and private charity at a cost of $220,000,000 a year! There are about 300,000 old people in benevolent institutions and homes in this country."

You shudder when you think of such a thing happening to you. Take no chance. Secure an endowment. It is the easiest and best, if, indeed, not the ONLY way to be sure of an income.

Locals and Personals

Dr. H. A. Basher of Los Angeles spent Thursday night in Glendale visiting with friends and relatives.

Thomas Smith, 118 North Kenwood avenue, who has been sick for a few days is expected back in the Ford agency Monday.

H. Eshe has sold his home at 722 South Adams street to Mr. Kreisel of Los Angeles, who will take possession in about a month.

Mrs. Laura Stevenson Spang of Los Angeles was the over night guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable of 505 South Columbus avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wells of Long Beach were guests Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Stanley of 738 South Maryland avenue. Both families came from the same place in Illinois, and their friendship dates back many years.

Father Purtill, instructor of the Indians at Pala Mission, twelve miles beyond Temecula, was a Glendale visitor yesterday and interviewed Jesse Smith, local Ford dealer, on the advisability of auctioning a car for the support of the mission school.

Mrs. Shives Mitchell of King City, who has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Ella W. Richardson of 315 North Brand boulevard, returned yesterday to her home in that city. Her son, Billy, will remain here with his grandmother for a month.

While building their own home in Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Somerton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baines, 147 South Cedar street. Mr. Baines recently opened The Mission Store, 107 West Broadway, and has become magnetized as a Glendale booster, already.

The women of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold their annual thank offering service tomorrow morning. The offering will be divided between the home and foreign work. Rev. W. E. Edmonds will give a sermon suitable to the occasion.

"I am sold on Glendale," says Mr. Karr, "and I am transferring my interests here. I expect to return to Parsons, Kan., where my factory employs forty to forty-five people, and bring back a party with me in three weeks' time. I expect the building will be complete and ready for occupancy by Christmas."

Mrs. Richard Gilbert of 622 South Columbus avenue entertained with a delightful luncheon at the Mary Louise tea room Thursday. The guests included Mrs. Minnie Patterson, Mrs. English, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. John Frazer and Mrs. E. Hinkle. This was followed by a matinee party at a Los Angeles theatre.

Miss Eva Daniels of 324 West Colorado street, Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. George B. Woodbury and Miss Anna Woodbury attended the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Republican Study club of Los Angeles, which was held at the Union League club. Miss Daniels was appointed chairman of membership for Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stevens have arrived in Glendale from Ortonville, Minn., and after visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ball, 123 South Everett street, they have taken a home at 1312 East Wilson avenue. This is their third winter in Glendale and Mrs. Stevens noted a wonderful change in the city during the last eight months.

About sixty members of Glendale Commandery, No. 53, Knights Templar, and their guests, attended and participated in the "Crusaders" pageant staged last night at Tournament Park, Pasadena, by Pasadena Commandery, No. 31, which was given for the purpose of raising funds to send a battalion to New Orleans at the next grand conclave, which will be in 1922.

Science and superstition have been at war for ages, but new evidence that science will ultimately win comes from the many times superstition masquerades in the clothes of science and claims to be natural phenomena.

STAINED GLASS ART WINDOWS PLACED IN NEW CHURCH

Tomorrow's Catholic Services Will Be Conducted Amid Impressive Display

The stained glass art windows have now been installed in the Holy Family Catholic church and tomorrow's service, conducted by the Rev. Father James S. O'Neil, will be the first held under their soft diffused light.

The principal window, which is a copy of Murillo's "Immaculate Conception," the original of which is in the Louvre at Paris and is one of the three great masterpieces of the world, is over the choir loft and over the entrance. It represents the divine quality of womanhood. This pane is a gift from Ramona Institute No. 87, Y. L. I.

There are two smaller windows in the sanctuary. The one to the east of the altar depicts "The Immaculate Heart of Mary" and is the gift of "Frank Monaghan," while the one to the west of the altar pictures "The Sacred Heart of Jesus" and is the gift of "The Catholic Men of Glendale."

Windows Dedicated

In the transept of the church are four windows. The two to the east are dedicated to St. John and St. Mark and are gifts of "Pioneer Members" and "The Altar Society, 1921." The two to the west are dedicated to St. Matthew and St. Luke and are gifts of "Napoleon Le Blanc" and "Dr. and Mrs. N. Bray."

The large windows on the east side of the church are gifts of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Degnam, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dillon and Henry M. Doll and family, while one of them is "in memoriam" of Mrs. J. P. Green.

The windows on the west side of the church are gifts of Frederick B. and Catherine M. Huesman and family, Knights of Columbus Council, 1920, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Smith and Anna E. Smith, Mrs. William Zimmerman and Gertrude Zimmerman. One of the panes on this side of the nave is "in memoriam" of M. H. Becker.

Made By One Concern

At the sides of the choir loft are two windows, the one to the west being "in memoriam of Frank J. Vogel" and the one to the east a "Gift of L. G. Scovern."

The windows were installed under the direction of J. C. Spaulding, western representative of the Tiffany Studios of New York City.

"The church is very fortunate in having all the windows made by one concern," stated Mr. Spaulding. "This is the only way the interior color cheme and lighting effects can be made to harmonize."

MRS. A. W. TOWER BOOSTER

Mrs. A. W. Tower of 214 East Park avenue is also another booster for Glendale. She has persuaded her father and step-mother, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Collins to make their home in this city. They arrived Thursday from Spencer, Ind., and will reside at 208 East Park avenue.

COUPLE COME HERE, WED

Rev. O. P. Rider officiated at a wedding which was held at his home, 208 East Acacia avenue, last night, when Ruth G. Conklin of Los Angeles became the bride of Wilbur L. Brown, also of Los Angeles. A small group of immediate friends were in attendance.

Deaths and Funerals

GARRETT ZEEMAN

Garrett Zeeman, aged 64 years, passed away at a local hospital Thursday, October 27, 1921. Deceased had been a resident of Glendale for the past three months, having come here from Estherville, Iowa, in search of health. Mr. Zeeman was a retired banker. Mrs. Katherine Zeeman, widow, will leave Sunday, October 30, accompanying the body to the old home, where funeral services will be conducted. Jewel City Undertaking company is in charge.

JOHN ALEXANDER ENGLE

Flowers for the casket of John Alexander Engle, 814 East Harvard avenue, may be sent to the funeral parlors of L. G. Scovern, 1000 South Brand boulevard, where the funeral services will be held Monday morning, October 31, 1921. Rev. C. E. Norton will officiate. Interment will be in Rose Hill cemetery, Los Angeles.

Births

BABY IN E. D. HAMLIN HOME

Lots at Fairview are selling so rapidly that E. D. Hamlin of the firm of Hamlin & Hepburn, subdividers, decided to take on a new salesman. He arrived at the Hamlin residence, 220 North Maryland avenue, at 4:15 o'clock Friday morning, October 28, 1921, and deighs ten pounds. Of course, he will have to go into training for the job for quite a period, but the Hamlins say he will fill the bill.

ONE LADY TOLD US

—The other day a lady called on the phone and told us that from now on she would not think of doing her own laundry work.

THE REASON WAS CLEAR

—"I am so well pleased with your Laundry Service that I wish to congratulate you on having such a perfect and inexpensive system of cleansing clothes," she said.

SHE SPOKE THE TRUTH

—We want every housewife in Glendale to verify the statement of this woman by giving us a trial, and we will guarantee in return to do the family laundry better than it could be done at home.

LEGION POST NO. 8 AIDS LOCALS IN BUILDING PLAN

H. H. Harris at Session Held Last Night and Tells of Making 'Contributions'

"Give Los Angeles Post No. 8 a room in your American Legion clubhouse when it is built," implored H. H. Harris, of the former organization, in a speech before the local Legionnaires last night. "We contributed toward it."

It seems that Miss Viola Yorba, the beautiful Spanish singer and dancer, appeared before No. 8 post and after a little entertainment proceeded to sell carnival queen votes.

Mr. Harris also called attention to the fact that "Pinafore" will be presented in December for the benefit of No. 8 post. Being a member of the financial committee of the state organization he is visiting southern California towns boosting the show.

Purchased Yours Yet?

W. B. Kelly provided those present—about three score veterans—with tickets for the boxing exhibition and wrestling match to be staged Armistice night after most of them had volunteered as ushers or ticket takers for the carnival week. Plenty of work looks ahead of the Legionnaires.

Richardson D. White and Charles B. Guthrie started the ball rolling on a membership drive to conclude Armistice week and George Hastings, Frank Weller, Charles G. Gibb and Michael G. Mahoney, who were initiated last night, were named a special committee to bring in other "buddies."

To Boost Bond Issue

A speaking committee, composed of Dwight W. Stephenson and Richardson D. White, was named by Commander E. O. Kiefer to locally promote the $10,000,000 bond issue for veterans' rehabilitation to be voted upon next month.

Adjutant James F. McBryde announced that application for educational advantages should have copies of recorded honorable discharges. He also informed members that the national convention in Kansas City would have Marshal Foch in attendance. The railroad fare has been reduced to a cent a mile.

CALLS MEETING TO HEAR REPORT ON P. E. RAILROAD

F. H. Vesper Says Statement on Service in Eastern Section to Be Made

F. H. Vesper, secretary and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce railroad committee appointed several years ago for the purpose of obtaining Pacific Electric railroad service in the eastern section of the city, has sent out the following communication calling attention to a meeting of the committee on November 15 in the Broadway school to hear reports and to consider further plans:

"The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce several years ago to obtain Pacific Electric railroad service for the eastern section of the city will hold a meeting November 15 in the Broadway school at 8 p. m. at which time a detailed statement of the financial transactions of the committee will be given. Consideration will also be given to further plans of the committee. All of those interested in any way in the work of this committee are cordially invited and urged to attend this meeting.

"The work of this committee has extended over a period of several years, during which time its members gave a great deal of their time in an effort to secure a right of way for the extension of the Pacific Electric railway system from Brand boulevard and Cypress street through the easterly section of the city to Broadway, thence westerly on Broadway to Brand boulevard. The committee's efforts have been partially successful thus far in that they have obtained the extension of the Pacific Electric service along Broadway to the Broadway school.

Report to Be Made

"Owing to conditions created by the great war, the committee was unable to complete its work by reason of the fact that a large number of those who subscribed to the right of way fund were not in position to pay their subscriptions. The committee desires to submit a detailed statement of its efforts to date in this matter to all those who have subscribed to the fund, also to others who may be interested in continuing the efforts of the committee until the transportation service sought shall be obtained.

"Something of interest in regard to immediate future plans will be presented and the committee feels that attendance at this meeting by those interested in the development of the eastern section of the city will be worth while.

"CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RAILROAD COMMITTEE,
"By F. H. Vesper, Secretary and Treasurer."

Glendale's Heavyweight Squad Takes Football Game With Score of 21 to 12

By HOWARD McGILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News

With more than three-fourths of a crowd of more than 2000 excited and nerve-racked gridiron enthusiasts wildly cheering them toward victory, the heavyweight football team of the Glendale high school yesterday afternoon walloped the Citrus union tanbark athletes, 21 to 12, in the best and most hair-raising contest of the season. The game was a well-balanced conglomeration of first class football, a determined fighting spirit and flukes, with the latter having a slight edge over the others. The game was anybody's until the last part of the third quarter when Captain Dutcher calmly scooped the ball from behind Citrus' line and scampered fifty yards to a touchdown, practically putting the pastime on ice.

Coach Hayhurst's lads started things early, Bob McCourt neatly intercepting a Citrus pass on the third play of the game and tearing forty yards down the sawdust trail for the initial score of the day. The touchdown was put across in a most dramatic manner, McCourt pulling a "Casey at the bat" stunt when he rolled several yards after being tackled in the shadows of the goal posts. Stofft added another point to the total by converting goal on the first of his perfect kicks of the afternoon.

Visitors Make Score

The second quarter opened with the ball in the possession of Citrus on Glendale's twenty-five yard line, the Lemon Yellowbacks being halted by the airtight work of the locals' line when they failed to make the allotted ten yards. After making several substantial gains the Glendaleites were getting ready to witness a Red and Black stampede down the field when McCourt permitted a pass from center to get through him and bound into the waiting arms of Wright, Citrus' left tackle, who promptly "hightailed" it to the opposite end of the gridiron for his team's first marker. The goal was not converted.

Glendale's second touchdown came in the middle of the third quarter, following a costly fumble by "Bullet" Rudeman, Citrus' shifty fullback; after having plunged through the Glendale line for a three yard advance. Fred Stofft, who played a brilliant game from start to finish, lost no time in gathering in the oval and lighting out in the general direction of the opposing goal line with Citrus' entire eleven men on his tail. Although Stofft carried the ball over the line his work in doing so was no more spectacular than that of Wilson, who saved Fred from being tackled by some of the cleverest interference work seen on the local field in many a day.

Last Minute Change

The locals' final score, which came within a few minutes after Stofft's phenomenal run, has already been described, Dutcher picking up the ball when it barely was out of reach of a Lemon Yellowback who had been "spilled" by Ryan.

The boys from Azusa made a valiant attempt to save the game toward the closing moments of play when they took advantage of Glendale's weakened line, Fraley and Eiffler having been taken out on account of injuries, and bucked across for their second and last touchdown. They again failed to convert.

Coach Hayhurst's last minute change in the lineup proved to be a good move, yesterday's combination working together better than any that has been tried all season. Fraley and Eiffler, two of the most dependable forwards on the squad, were back in the game after an absence of several weeks, due to injury. Although both were forced to retire from yesterday's combat, their injuries were not serious and will not keep them out of next week's game.

The principal improvement, however, was the shifting of Dutcher, captain and most valuable man on the team, to the backfield. He played at full, McCourt having been moved up to Ronnie West's place at left half. Although this was his initial appearance behind the line he played a bangup game, both on the offense and defense, and it is expected that with a few more weeks of practice at his new position his name will be mentioned with the best line buckers in the country.

Locals Play Well

As the entire Glendale team played excellent football it is difficult to pick out the stars. "Brick" Ryan, the sorrel topped freshman end, earned honorable mention, his perfect interference and deadly tackling throughout the four quarters being one of the factors which kept Glendale in the lead. Stofft and Richardson also come in for a share of the glory, the stubborn holding of the latter being an outstanding feature in every play.

The lineups were as follows:

Substitutions — Citrus, Archuleta for McArthur; Glendale, Clous for Eiffler, Gibson for Fraley.

HUNTING SEASON IS ON, BUT NOT FOR GOVERNOR BAXTER, MAINE, HE QUIT

PERCIVAL P. BAXTER

AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 28.—The hunting season is on.

The nimrod goeth afield with his dog to seek luscious birds and other game. There is one erstwhile nimrod who will not shoulder a gun.

Once an ardent sportsman, Governor Percival P. Baxter of Maine, has quit the chase.

There was a time when the governor was one of the first to take to the woods in the autumn, but now he will shoot neither bird nor beast. This despite the fact that Maine is a veritable sportsman's paradise. In addition to a wide variety of small game, deer, bear and moose are plentiful.

Governor Baxter maintains a kennel of Irish setters as highly blooded as any in the state. He has had the same family of setters for years, since the time he used them for bird shooting. He does not pretend that the dogs have experienced the same change of heart as he.

The governor is having erected a monument to all the dogs he has owned since childhood that have since died. His reputation for kindness to animals, both domestic and wild, is widely known.

Mrs. Luther Kennett, former California state golf title holder, and seven times winner of open championship of the Coronado Country club is at present playing remarkable golf.

Mrs. Kennett has been a regular over the Coronado grass links for some weeks past and in the various matches she has turned in some scores of 80 and 81, but she capped any previous performance last Monday by breaking her own course record and rounding out the nineteen holes in the remarkable score of 78. She made the first nine with a 39 and then repeated the performance over the second nine.

It is generally conceded round southern California that Mrs. Kennett is the only woman at the present time able to make such a performance though there are many who think Miss Doreen Kavanaugh may come very close to this mark any day. The wise ones, however, believe Mrs. Kennett is the only person capable of actually breaking this record. The previous record was made by Mrs. Kennett some months ago.

If the plans of Reed college in Portland materialize another coast college will adopt rowing as a major sport. The Reed boys are anxious to get into the brine splashing sport and to start with will row in "fours" and participate in the regattas of the Pacific Northwest Rowing association. Until it is proved that Reed college can produce crews no attempt will be made to secure races with California or Washington and it is even problematical if the college will attempt eight oar rowing for some years. A four oared race would be an attractive event on the coast college program each year and if such an event was put on the California-Washington-Stanford program there is a possibility that Reed may be enticed to enter in this event. In any event it is encouraging to the rowing sport to see this small college come out for the scull and blade events.

Stanford Stadium is finished. It will positively be ready for the California-Stanford game three weeks hence. Only trifling details remain to be finished, but as far as accommodating a crowd is concerned that could be done tomorrow if necessary. The grass which was planted some time ago is starting to grow and by the day of the game the field will be a beautiful green turf. No games will be played on the field this season until the two colleges baptize it. It is even possible that neither college will even practice on it, so as to give the turf every chance to gain strength.

Five cities want to hold the Grand American Handicap for 1922. This blue ribbon event of the trapshooting sport is keenly contested for each year by cities all over the country. Last year it was at Chicago and Chicago would like it again. Other cities out for it are Des Moines, Indianapolis, New York and Atlantic City.

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—"I notice that the University of California team is not running up the big scores that it did last season, although with one or two exceptions it appears to have about the same lineup that it had last year."

The above is quoted from what a Yale man said to me in the course of a conversation, to show that, however indifferent the eastern college man may appear in regard to football matters on the Pacific coast, he occasionally makes a slip which indicates that the progress of the teams west of the Rocky Mountains is receiving more or less attention.

Football men on the Atlantic coast are prone to believe that Andy Smith is "playing 'possum" and that his great football machine of last season, which is believed practically to be intact is playing its game "under wraps," so to speak. While they have not said so in as many words, I infer that they think Andy is offering a little sugar coated bait to attract some team from the east to come out west again this winter to play against his team. It meems practically to be taken for granted here that the University of California is going to repeat as the champion team of its section of the country.

If this is really what the "Bears" coach is doing, he is not alone in the practice. Secret practice and the playing of the men of the eastern teams "under wraps" is being carried on to an extent this season which never has obtained before. I have asked a number of the coaches the reason for this.

A composite answer would perhaps be framed in this wise: "It is because of the forward pass and its resultant aerial form of attack. The possibilities of this play only are in its chrysalis form. Its permutations and combinations seem to be limitless. Practically every game that is played is bringing out some new angle of this play as applied to the offense. One such play conceived in secret and sprung at the psychological moment uuring game may result in the winning touchdown. The enemy "scout" who is on hand to see it naturally reports it, and it may be forestalled."

There you have it. Before the forward pass came into being, secret practice was a matter of, only a few days before some particular important game. Now the doors of the playing field may be closed any day, and day on day to the undergraduates and the public. Let it be understood that there is no onus plaied on the term "scout." It does not mean that the rival team is sending some man disguised in false beard and dark goggles. He comes quite openly and takes his place just as does any other spectator. But—while he is there, it is obvious that that newly invented play cannot be practised. Hence the gate is closed.

As a further indication that there is no onus on the so-called "scout," it may be interesting to know that the colleges of the east reciprocate by sending complimentary tickets to each other for various games which specifically are for the use of members of the other teams who want to watch the game.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER FOR FILMS MADE BY LOCAL MAN

Bob Sodestrom of Glendale Theatre Has Device That Will Protect Reels

An invention by Bob Sodestrom, motion picture operator for the Glendale Theatre, designed to automatically extinguish any fire which might occur in the film magazines, now is being installed on the theatre's machines under Sodestrom's direction.

At the same time, Sodestrom is preparing blue prints and a model of the invention for shipping to a Chicago manufacturing concern which has expressed keen interest in the idea.

The device will utterly obviate any possibility of disastrous fire and will act as a positive safeguard, is Sodestrom's statement, following exhaustive tests.

One of these experiments consisted of setting on fire a complete reel of film and allowing it to burn a few seconds before closing the magazine door. The invention then worked automatically and snuffed out the blaze.

Applies for Patent

Sodestrom's device consists of a tank of ordinary fire extinguisher liquid which is attached to the wall of the operating booth and connected with the film magazines by four tubes leading to entrances which are sealed shut with a fusible link. When the blaze within the magazine attains a heat of 150 degrees Fahrenheit, the links melt and the liquid rushes into the film case.

James F. McBryde, local attorney, is handling the business end of Sodestrom's invention and has applied for a patent.

One item in favor of the Glendale man's safety apparatus is the ease with which it can be attached and the small expense involved. The belief is expressed that fire insurance companies will naturally reduce their rates on motion picture theatres which are thus equipped.

NATIONAL AUTO EXHIBITION

Preparations are now being made for the twenty-second national automobile show in New York and Chicago. The New York show will take place in Grand Central palace, January 7-14, 1922, and the Chicago exposition January 28-February 4, in the Coliseum and Armory.

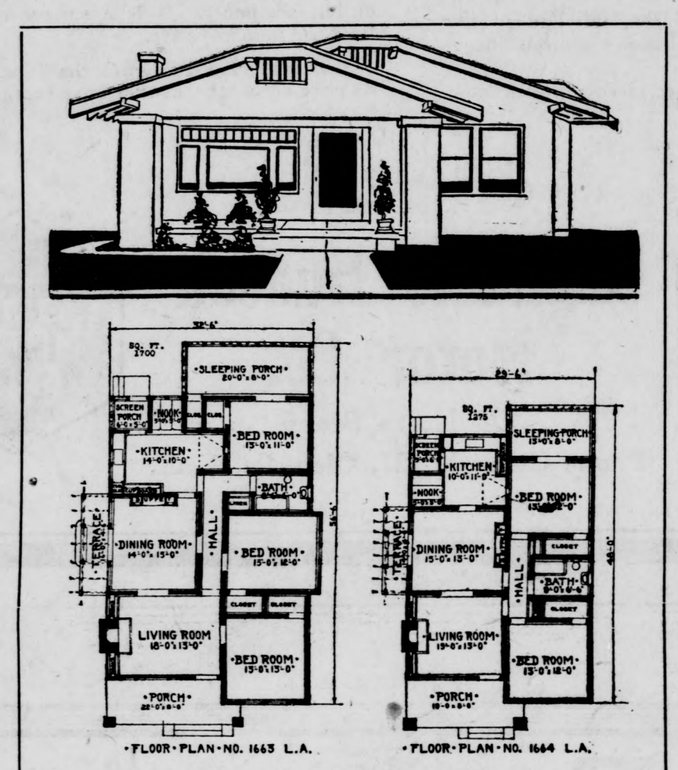
A HOME OF YOUR OWN



Plan No. 1663 - 1664

We know you will welcome the opportunity of studying the exterior illustration and alternate floor plans featured this week because it shows one of the most compact and convenient arrangements that it is possible for you to have incorporated into a home. The exterior is more attractive and to those who are able to find in the room arrangement sufficient space in meeting their individual needs will want to adopt this practical plan for their new home. We are going to endeavor each week to feature a home that will meet with the requirements of the public. We appreciate the fact that most people have pet ideas they are desirous of incorporating into the home they are to build but we are sure, with minor alterations, the changes you have in mind can easily be applied to one of the homes we will show. Remember, this campaign is being conducted for your convenience and we will welcome the opportunity of assisting you in any reasonable way. Your inquiry to the Home Building Editor, care this paper, will be given immediate attention.

IF you are renting there is no good reason why the money you are paying out for rent should not be used in making payments on a home.

ALL around you is evidence of determination. What others have done you can do. You hesitate to assume this obligation and continue paying rent while friends adopt the other plan. You then envy them their possessions and wish you had made the start when they did, for the contentment and permanency attached to Home Ownership greatly offset the sacrifices you make in meeting payments, etc.

Money invested in a home, in the improvement and up-keep of real estate, is the wisest of wise expenditures. Here lies the foundation of your future, the real insurance against adversity, the freedom from the burden of paying rent. A home pays daily dividends of happiness, contentment and comfort, that know no percentage rule—dividends that cannot be measured by the dollar standard.

Increased incomes coupled with our newly acquired national habit of thrift, find most of us able to meet a fair-sized monthly payment on some investment. Many long cherished possessions are within our reach. Certain luxuries are strongly tempting our dollars. Our new-found wealth is apt to warp our judgment. We are subject to momentary intoxications of prosperity and may make some foolhardy investment. The test of our judgment is at hand, so let us proclaim our wisdom by putting our money into a Home, or buy Building & Loan shares; these can be converted into cash any time to buy or build homes with and in the meantime are being utilized with other shareholders' savings in helping someone else to build a home.

Your banker, your lawyer, your merchant, the worthwhile families you know, own their homes. You accept their advice, why not follow their example? To rent the house you live in is a public confession of failure, shiftlessness and poor judgment. Home Ownership is a commercial as well as a social asset.

A Home in the true sense is not a leased or rented dwelling where no permanency is assured but must be your very own—to have and to hold. Must be planned by a united family, erected by loving hands and paid for by willing sacrifices.

You know you would be far better off if the money you are paying out for rent was being applied towards acquiring a home; that in a few short years would be your own. Knowing this, why delay? Resolve now that no more of your money will be converted into rent receipts but instead will go towards paying for a home of your own.

The endorsers and supporters of these pages are combining their efforts and financial assistance in conveying timely advice, practical home building ideas and creative thoughts for your consideration and it is their earnest desire that the campaign will be of such productiveness as to fully cope with Glendale's home building needs.

BETTER SERVICE AT LOWER COST ASSURED OWNERS

DO YOU KNOW that many of the insurance companies who handle automobiles, are taking the cars which need repairs to those places where the emblem of the California Automobile Trade Association is displayed?

There is a reason behind all this. These experts know that only the better class of garages and repair shops are wise enough to belong to such an organization.

The California Automobile Trade Association was organized to proteet the motor car owner, and to protect the men in the automotive industry from unscrupulous car owners.

The emblem, the well-known radiator and wheel, stands for a great deal. It means that the place displaying it is giving owners a fair deal.

One of the greatest problems in the automobile industry of a few years ago, was to get real service. Many motorists were forced to pay exorbitant prices for small services, and the whole industry suffered. Now, with accurate cost keeping systems, and proper service facilities, it is rare indeed to receive reports of overcharging for repairs.

Few of the reliable repair shops will start a job on a car without the owner's signature on the order, which sets forth definitely what is to be done. If the mechanics find that other things are necessary, the repair man communicates with the owner, and does not do additional work until the owner authorizes him to proceed.

The whole plane of the automotive industry has been elevated by constructive methods, and good work is now being done throughout the state, and the nation, in making these shops more reliable. Owners are getting better service, at lower costs.

CORRECT WELCOME WILL BE GIVEN MOTOR GUESTS

Auto Tourists Will Receive Real Greeting as They Come Into Southland

For the first time in history, steps have been taken for a correct welcoming of motor visitors into southern California.

This system has been put into operation by the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California and it is expected that before long every city in the southern part of the state will be a party to the welcome committee.

This section of the country is the most important mecca for auto tourists in the world, at the present time, according to auto club statistics, and for that reason some definite system for receiving the visitors and making them feel at home was necessary.

In its present mode of operation in this system, the visitor is received by the local traffic officer and is handed a card directing him to the local headquarters of the Automobile Club, where he is given a "guest" windshield sticker and all maps, touring information and sets of traffic laws which he may require.

Give "Welcome Cards"

In Los Angeles where the welcome plan will be tried out, Chief of Police Jones and Mayor Cryer are cooperating with the club in the movement. Traffic police are giving out "welcome cards" to all bearing license numbers of other states.

"Guest" cards on windshields are already beginning to be seen on the state roads and it is planned by the club's touring bureau to put this system into effect in the principal cities and towns of the southern counties within a short while if local authorities believe that automobile visitors should be appropriately welcomed.

All service to visitors by the Automobile Club will, of course, be free, point out club officials. It is donated with the intention of making those who come here by motor cars feel at home and desire to remain.

Local Ford Agency's Salesmen Land Good Contract for Autos

There are fifteen Ford agencies in Los Angeles and only one in Glendale.

Nevertheless, the Southern California Edison company expects to receive nine more cars from the local agency the early part of next week. This is a supplemental order as this company bought ten from the Glendale branch last March.

The reason is simple. The local agency has acquired a reputation in the territory for paying full value for a used car and all that it is worth. A great deal of business now comes from Los Angeles just for this reason. Last April four large firms there bought thirty-six Fords through the Glendale agency.

"The only place where there is any competition is on the trade-ins," stated Mr. Lawrence. "Sometimes we are asked if there is any reduction if two cars are bought at once. We can't give a discount of any kind—not even an extra nut or bolt. There is absolutely no "rake off" from the standard price."

The Fords will be turned over to the Los Angeles headquarters of the Southern California Edison company.

Thirty per cent of the American farmers own automobiles.

New Accessory and Tire Store Open at Brand and Colorado

A new tire and auto accessory store is being fitted up at the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and Colorado avenue in the premises occupied by the E. W. Cizek Auto Electric service garage. It will be under the management of H. W. Richards and S. E. Gane.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards recently drove to Glendale from Grand Rapids, Michigan. They arrived about a month ago and occupied the residence with Mrs. Richards' brother, A. S. Jones, 332 Mira Loma avenue, until recently, when they moved to West Colorado avenue. Mr. Richards has been on the coast four times before and this time has decided to stay.

Mr. Gane was a Canadian ace of the Royal Flying corps during the war and has quite a war record. It is reported that he is credited with seven German planes and was shot down five times. At present he is stopping in Pasadena. His former home was in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Tack Spreader Again Busy on Highways in Southland, Is Report

"Jack the Tack Spreader" is busy again on Southern California highways, according to a report just issued by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Hundreds of motorists have complained by telephone and in person to club offices in various southern counties of the state that roads in their neighborhood have been so generously coated with tacks that scores of automobile parties were lined up along the road fixing as many as three punctures in each car at one time.

Routes between San Diego and Los Angeles have suffered particularly in this respect and it is the belief of auto club officials that the tacks, which are the large-headed variety, have been maliciously put on the road for no good purpose by some certain individual or individuals. As much as a quart of tacks have been picked up within a distance of 200 yards on the road by club representatives.

A complete and systematic investigation of the matter is now under way by auto club executives.

In Buenos Aires, S. A., it is planned to issue luminous number license plates for automobiles used in that city.

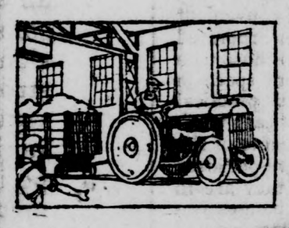
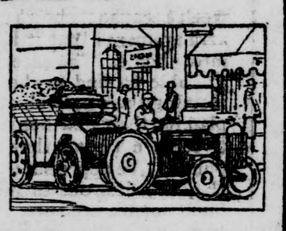
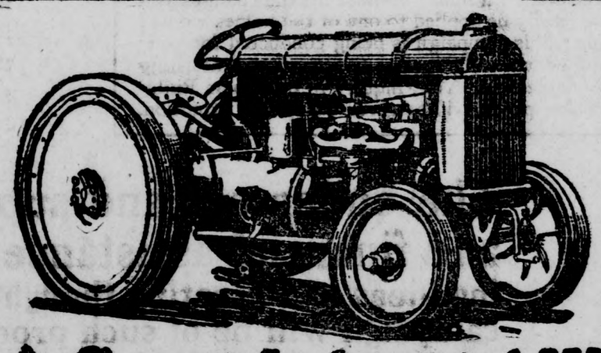
Fordson TRACTOR



Tows freight cars, pulls tons of materials about factories, hauls trailers loaded with lumber, coal and crushed stone; drags logs; does excavating and hoisting; crushes stone; mixes concrete; drives piles; hauls street cleaning equipment; plows snow and hauls it away; grades and rolls streets and roads, etc.





Fordson Tractor equipped with Solid Rubber tired wheels for factory and street uses.

A Great Industrial Worker

There isn't any doubt about the dependability, adaptability, efficiency or economy of the Fordson Tractor. These things have all been proved by the most severe tests on farms all over the country where more than 170,000 of them are in daily use.

Light, easy to handle and operate in small spaces, there is absolutely no doubt about the practicability of the Fordson for industrial uses. This has been proved by manufacturers in most every line, construction and excavating engineers, cementing contractors, coal and building supply concerns, street and road building contractors, cities, towns and villages.

You can undoubtedly apply a Fordson to your line of business. Let's talk it over. It will interest you to get all the details.

OLDSMOBILE'S HOME OPEN TO PUBLIC FOR INSPECTION

J. C. Pollock Invites People to Visit New Quarters on West Broadway

The auto agency of J. C. Pollock, featuring Oldsmobiles and Olds' service opened doors this week for business in the new building at 208-210 West Broadway. With Mr. Pollock as salesmen will be associated T. A. Aamoth, Harry B. Watson and Gus Pulliam. W. H. Thomas, an expert mechanic from New York has also been employed for the service department.

The new building provides ample room for handling a large number of cars. The show room is 45 by 50 feet and has several cars on display. The service room is the same size, and a wash rack has been provided. A neat office and a room for spare parts completes the equipment of the establishment.

Keeping Open House

Besides featuring the Oldsmobile the firm will continue to handle real estate, as it did at its previous location, 133 South Brand boulevard. Mr. Pollock is very optimistic over the future of the Oldsmobile in Glendale and said:

"We shall specialize in new and used cars. Our expert mechanic, Mr. Thomas of New York, is a very valuable addition to the firm and our customers may be assured they are getting the best of service.

"The firm will continue to handle real estate as formerly. We are keeping open house and want the public to call on us in our new quarters and become better acquainted with our line of cars, and our service."

Sells Five Buicks in Few Hours; Big Demand Is Reported

The sale of five Buicks within a few hours is the recent record of Tanner & Hall, Ltd., 237 South Brand boulevard, according to Ray Galvin.

One of these cars was the second coupe of the latest model to be sold in this territory. It was purchased by C. A. Gates, 354 North Kenwood avenue. Among the features of this classy enclosed car with dark blue exterior may be mentioned the horizontally divided wind shield, the gray velour upholstery, the window panes raised or lowered by small American silver cranks, and the folding front seat.

Another of the cars was a sedan which was delivered to Miss Alice H. Frank, 1558 East Wilson avenue.

Moles and Gophers Have No Love for Mothballs, She Says

Gophers don't get along very well with Mrs. Sadie N. Benham, 334 Cameron place, and there's a reason.

No, Mrs. Benham doesn't load a shotgun with mothballs and wait for Mr. Gopher to appear for execution. She puts the gopher family on moth ball rations. Into each rodent domicile she places several mothballs. If it is a large family, it gets five or six and if it is merely a couple of old bachelors it only gets a couple. Now, it seems that gophers don't like mothballs—maybe they dislike them so much that they prefer to starve to death.

Anyhow, for the past six months Mrs. Benham hasn't been bothered with a single gopher. Before that time she thought the property would be ruined by their burrows. After the gophers disappeared, moles made their appearance but they, too, got a dose of moth balls and failed to return to the table for a second helping.

Mrs. Benham thought at first that the gophers and moles might have packed up and gone to other camping grounds, but no, neighbors claim that their premises are free, also, from the pests.

HALF A MILLION IS SAVED

Since the prices of gasoline have decreased approximately 30 per cent since the beginning of the year, an estimated saving aggregating $500,000 is being made annually by the public.

VALLEY AUTO TRADE ORGANIZATION TO HOLD MEETING

Character Analyst Will Be on Program at Gathering in Pasadena Nov. 9

The date for the next general meeting, and "ladies' night" of the San Gabriel Valley Automobile Trade association, has been definitely set for Wednesday night, November 9. The Hotel Vista del Arroyo at Pasadena, has been selected as the place in which to hold the festivities, and promises one of their famous banquets.

Automobile men from Pasadena, South Pasadena, Glendale and Alhambra, are making plans to attend this, the second general meeting and ladies' night to be held there. The last meeting was such a big success, it is stated, that members have been clamoring for a repetition.

After the banquet is over, elaborate plans have been made for entertainment that will satisfy everyone.

M. E. Drum, character analyst of wide repute, has been secured to deliver a short address and then illustrate his talks by actually reading the character of numerous members present. His ability to read faces correctly was demonstrated at the recent San Diego convention.

Electrical Demonstration

Following Mr. Drum on the program, Norman I. Prosser, automotive engineer, will demonstrate what can be done with electricity. Mr. Prosser, a graduate of engineering colleges, has an exhibition that is declared to be little short of marvelous. Among his tricks is that of lighting cigarets, candles, wicks, and the like, from the bodies of the bystanders, lighting electric globes under water, and many other interesting feats.

After this entertainment, dancing will be in order in the Spanish room, and for those who do not care to "trip the light fantastic," card tables will be provided.

All in all, November 9 should prove to be a memorable occasion for those who attend, the committee says.

Do You Intend Trip on Rim of U. S.? If So, Read This 'Short'

Interesting information for motorists who contemplate an auto trip circling the rim of the United States is issued by the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Following the route chosen by the automobile scout car on its recent mapping tour around this circle, the motorist will encounter 4178 miles of hard surface road, made up of concrete, macadam, brick or shell surface.

You will find 8040 miles of improved dirt road and 2429 miles of unimproved dirt road, showing that a preponderance of the highways circling the United States at the present time are improved for motor car travel.

Rupert Hughes Tale Picturized Featured on T. D. & L. Screen

"Dangerous Curve Ahead," high speed, romantic film drama on wedded life, is the T. D. & L. theatre's principal attraction for Sunday and Monday. On the same bill is to be a thrilling Northwest mounted police story, "On the Trail," and a beautiful scenic tour in a foreign land with Burton Holmes.

The story for the principal feature is by Rupert Hughes, author of "Excuse Me" and many other successes. While "Excuse Me" was the author's greatest success for the stage, many others were financially profitable and some toured the country for two or three seasons.

"Uncle Zeb" was the only play which Hughes produced since "Excuse Me." He then devoted himself exclusively to writing novels until he became interested in movie writing and located in Hollywood.

"Dangerous Curve Ahead" is the first story Hughes wrote directly for the screen. It accordingly bears keen interest and savors of many which are supposed will flow from his prolific typewriter.

WHO GOT THIS MONEY?

From an old volume of the session laws of the Wisconsin legislature it is found that in 1875 a prize of $10,000 was offered to any citizen of that state for the invention and production of a machine propelled by steam or other motive agent which would be a cheap and practical substitute for the horse and other animals on the highways and farms.

70 Years

Studebaker experience in carriage building goes back for seventy years. The accumulated experience of hundreds of skilled workmen is available to Studebaker in building fine enclosed motor cars.

It would be a mistake to choose an enclosed motor carriage with a body of such quality as the Studebaker unless it is mounted on a chassis as reliable, as satisfactory in performance and as long lived as the Studebaker SIX.

We anticipated the usual winter shortage of fine enclosed cars and ordered early, so we are able to make immediate delivery on some of the models, reasonably soon on others.

May we suggest that you can insure yourself comfortable travel in all kinds of weather if you will select one of the six enclosed models which Studebaker builds on SIX cylinder chasses only.

MAN OF 72 DRIVES ON AUTO TRIP OF 25,000 MILES

Makes Tour of Europe in His Studebaker; Practically No Trouble Experienced

After nearly a year and a half of motoring in Europe, Sydmer Ross, his wife and daughter have just returned to their citrus ranch near Fullerton.

In May of 1920 the Ross party left home to make a European trip which they had been planning since 1914, when the war made them hurry home from Germany, where they happened to be touring at the time.

Shipping his car from New York, the tour was begun from Liverpool, and some 2000 miles in England was covered. Then the party went through France, Italy, Sicily, Spain and even down into Africa, penetrating the desert some 350 miles in Algiers.

Because of the more beautiful scenery, Ross traveled the mountain roads whenever possible and avoided the valleys. He was warned repeatedly of the difficulties that would beset a man of 72 years who tried to drive over some of the European roads, but he crossed the Alps on a road that Napoleon built and climbed the car up to an elevation of 9,954 feet, just a little less than the summit of the Tioga pass over the High Sierras.

Use Tooth Picks Freely

Many amusing incidents were told of by Ross, but he chuckled more over the manners of the natives in the leading hotel of Pampelune, Spain, than any other story. It is the custom there to place the toothpicks on the dining table and, according to Ross, every one becomes busily engaged with a pick between courses, removing all trace of the food that has been consumed in the preceding course.

Ross reports a scarcity of motor cars in Europe as compared with California and says that most of the cars are confined to the larger cities, but that taxi cabs abound in every city with such a low rate of fare that they are universally patronized.

After traveling some 23,257 miles on the continent and another 2000 miles in England, Ross shipped the car to New York, bought a new Studebaker big six of a later model and drove it to Fullerton, California, where he has a citrus ranch.

Scores Colorado Roads

In a report of the trip which was sent to the Packer Auto company, local Studebaker distributor, Ross is quoted as saying that although he drove the car over any road he wanted to travel, in spite of being 72 years old, he had more difficulty with roads after he reached Colorado than at any previous points on the entire trip. This was due to recent storms in the states of Colorado and Arizona, but while the going was rough on account of the mud, he says that the car gave no trouble. All of the while he was in Europe he took care of it himself, having it inspected thoroughly after returning to London, one minor repair being needed at that time.

Only one other repair was made on the car in the 25,000 miles of travel and Ross declares that he is one of the well satisfied and enthusiastic members of the Studebaker family.

Expect Final Papers From Welfare Board in Next Few Weeks

A number of Glendale former service men who sent in their applications regarding the California Veterans' Educational Institute act are in receipt of communications from the Veterans' Welfare Board in Sacramento, giving them the number of their applications as they will be brought up for consideration. It is expected that those who are to receive educational aid from the state government will receive their final papers within the next few weeks.

The act, which was passed by the state legislature last year, provides for the furnishing of World war veterans with their expenses and tuition while attending college. A total of $200,000 is now at the disposal of the Veterans' Welfare Board for this purpose, with additional sums to be added in the next two years. All those who are contemplating a request for the vocational training are instructed to obtain an application from the county clerk or the adjutant of any American legion post.

Fred Deal! Whatsa Malla You! No Sabe Why You Do This!

Ham Foo, Chop Suey or Cuckoo's Nest?

Which ever you want you will likely find it listed in the San Francisco Chinese telephone directory on file at the Chamber of Commerce.

William Hunter, of the Glendale Paint & Paper company, gave it the "once over" last night at the credit men's meeting. J. M. Rhoades says he doesn't know why Fred Deal gave it to the Chamber.

E. F. Sanders may use it in getting new members and Henry Purinton believes some of his former 'Frisco friends are listed therein, but he can't read their number.

According to fable, the Chinaman is the only person on earth who "beats" the telephone company on toll charges. He talks and hears at the same instant, making it possible to carry on a conversation twice as rapidly.

NIGHT CLASSES IN SPANISH WILL BE STARTED HERE

Henry E. Brockway Secured to Give Instruction Behalf Number of Students

Both elementary and advanced Spanish is to be taught from henceforth at the night school, according to an announcement this morning by Principal A. L. Ferguson, who called attention to the opening of the two classes tonight.

The elementary course will meet from 7 to 8 p. m. Monday and Wednesday and will be followed by the advanced course which will meet from 8 to 9 o'clock on the same nights.

"We are very fortunate in having secured the services of Henry E. Brockway as a teacher of the course," declared Mr. Ferguson. "Mr. Brockway is a man who has traveled a great deal in foreign countries and is well versed in several languages. He is at present engaged in commercial and scientific translations."

Versed in Languages

Mr. Brockway is conversant with French, Portuguese, German and Italian as well as Spanish and English. He has lived in both Paris and Rio de Janeiro, but is now residing in Pasadena. He is in charge of the translation department of the Harrower laboratory and a member of the faculty of the Los Angeles Polytechnic high night school.

About thirty-five requests have been made for Spanish classes. Most of these were for elementary lessons although a few were for advanced work.

"Residents of the Glendale union district are afforded a rare opportunity," said Mr. Ferguson. "We feel sure that they will take advantage of it."

Drop in Price on Hupmobile Results in Scarcity, Claim

The drop of $230 on the price of the Hupmobile open model, bringing it down to $1465, has been due to the factory's policy of reducing the price where costs warranted, according to a statement yesterday afternoon by Lanier Bartlett of Bartlett & French, 201 South Brand boulevard, who declared that the Hups were selling readily at the old price.

"The factory policy is to sell cars as cheaply as it can consistent with what goes into them," said Mr. Bartlett. "The price quoted is on the open model. The closed models have gone down some, but not so much.

"There is a real scarcity of Hups right now, particularly of the closed models."

Harvey's Minstrels Coming Tuesday to T. D. & L. Theatre

A minstrel show as good as a circus with nothing to embarrass or offend the most particular persons, is the promise made for Harvey's Greater Minstrels, which plays on Tuesday night at the T. D. & L. theatre.

In the vaudeville section of the program is to be Musical Kirk, who plays an instrument, sings and smokes a cigar at the same time. During his vocal rendition the cigar is said to be out of sight in his iron-lined throat, with the smoke rolling forth in clouds.

Duke Anderson and Charles Beecham, notable comedians, and an extensive mixed Octaroon Beauty Chorus are other extravagant features. End-men with rip-roaring "gags" and numerous comedy tricks add to the gaiety of the typical minstrel performance.

Attractive Displays at Dibbern's Store

"All wise people are giving their orders for engraving now," stated A. H. Dibbern, 121 North Brand boulevard, yesterday afternoon. "The plants have been working nights for a month and a half on this work, already." Many compliments have been received by Mr. Dibbern upon the appearance of his display windows, one of which contains an attractive display of jewelry and the other an equally attractive display of engraving.

AUTO RACE TRACK IN PARIS

An automobile race track is being planned at Porte de Versailles, near Paris, which course will be more than four and three-quarter miles to the lap, including two straight runs of nearly one and one-third miles. The track is to consist of a concrete foundation, a layer of end-set brick and a top dressing of concrete.

THIS PREVENTS BLOWOUTS

When tire rims become badly rusted, rough particles of the rust and scale act like sandpaper on the inner tube, resulting in a worn spot and a premature blowout. By coating the rib with aluminum paint occasionally this can be prevented.

FIVE FEATURE ACTS FOR VAUDEVILLE SHOW TONIGHT

Glendale Theatre Program Is Certain to Fill House to Capacity, So Be Early

With five feature acts of vaudeville and a photoplay worth while, the Glendale theatre concludes its anniversary week with the strongest attractions obtainable. A full house greeted the Fox players last night, and novel entertainment was provided by Buck Jones and other stars.

Today Early & Laight provide comedy and songs with special scenic effects while Lillian Rose sings divinely and dances a bit. The De Wolfs have a musical novelty while the Spencers talk and sing their way through the world.

The three Dancing Belles are billed as "dainty delineators of song and dance." From the advance notices this should prove one of the best acts of the season on the Bert Levey Coast-to-Coast circuit.

Thrilling Feature Film

Frank Mayo appears on the crystal bead screen in "Go Straight," a thrilling film that will appeal to both young and old. Mr. Mayo has builded a reputation as a matinee idol and he is said to excel in this picture. International News also is on the program which is a bargain, indeed, at regular prices.

Mary Pickford—our Mary—will be the drawing card for Sunday in her latest United Artist production, "The Love Light." Those who have seen this drama with its locale on the shores of Italy will appreciate the opportunity of the return engagement to Glendale.

Paul Carson will busy himself tonight accompanying both the vaudeville and pictures by his superb playing of the great organ while the first of the week he will feature "O Sole Mio" as a solo number.

TO CHECK TRUCK LOADS

The Pennsylvania public service commission, state highway, and state police departments are united to check operators of heavily loaded trucks on the main highways of the state without certificates of conveyance from the commission and in a manner of damaging the roadways.

JOSEPH GUIDINGER WRITES ON TEXT 'DISARMAMENT'

Possible to Start in City of Glendale to Obtain Results, Says Writer

Under the title of "Disarmament," Joseph Guidinger, 454 West Doran, Glendale, addresses the following to the Federated Brotherhood of this city:

I entitle this message "Disarmament" because newspapers and magazines in general so nominate the conference on limitation of armaments at Washington, despite the emphatic instructions by the president that it is not a disarmament conference in any sense of the word. It is entirely feasible, most practical and economically wise for nations to mutually agree on a program for limitation of armaments. It is a very simple matter for any groups of individuals to bury some of their hatchets and store a part of their firearms in Davy Jones' locker. So, in all probability, the Washington conference will be the success its members hope for. But limiting armaments cannot possibly prevent the greatest war the world has known. Has America so soon forgotten its experience of preparation for the recent war when we began with a limit of armaments?

But disarmament is a wholly different proposition, inasmuch as it involves annihilation of the spirit of war in the heart of humanity. And there is no political power that can possibly accomplish that feat, because it is not possible to legislate righteousness into the heart of man. Nations may agree to limit their armaments, but how is it possible to remove from a nation the power relied on for success in war? While a man may bury his hatchet he cannot possibly bury either his muscular power or the cunning of his mind; and, of course, he will fight when occasion therefor arises. And, obviously, this holds true of a nation, which is nothing else than a group of individuals with their material possessions. Did not nations make war successfully for ages before armaments were invented?

Power to Accomplish

But the hope of the world lies in the fact that there is a power by which disarmament can and eventually will be accomplished, and I address this message to you men in particular because that power resides in the gospel of Jesus the Christ. The Rev. Mr. Oxnam told you the other evening that "The time has come for the Church of Jesus Christ to organize itself so that it will have a voice and influence at Washington on November 11 at the Disarmament Conference." Evidently Mr. Oxnam has a very erroneous idea of Christ's doctrine, else he could not possibly have made such a statement. In the Sermon on the Mount He asks us to pray for the kingdom of God to come on earth that the will of God may be done in earth as it is in Heaven. It is conceded by every one who hopes to go there that in heaven there is no war. And there is no strife there because the will of God is done in heaven. The purpose of Christ is to teach us how to do the will of God on earth so that we may know how to behave in heaven. How can one hope to go to heaven if he does not know how to deport himself when he gets there?

Start in Glendale

So, you see, my fellowmen, it is not necessary for any of us to go to Washington, and we would be foolish to make any effort in that direction in seeking disarmament. But it is entirely feasible and wholly practical for us to start the thing right here in Glendale that will eventually accomplish world disarmament, for the potential power whereby disarmament is accomplished resides right here in Glendale, and it is up to us, who do in fact believe in the power of God, to make actual that potentiality by getting together earnestly on the proposition of real peace by learning through daily practice how to actually follow the Prince of Peace.

This is the opportune time, for e world is scared stiff and only ds to be shown the way out for it adly follow, as witness this sam- f the general wail published dcast: "A hundred million per- s may perish in the next war if nocratic nations do not cease their ce for armaments. There will be non-combatants. Men, women nd children will be killed by poison as. The last great struggle nearly ankrupted society, the next will fin- sh the job. Yellow races may then rule the world. This catastrophe will surely arise if every citizen does not realize the menace, and consciously work for its prevention by supporting the coming disarmament conference in Washington."

In His Own Heart

And I say to these publicists that so long as the spirit of war lives in the heart of man there must, by virtue of its very nature, be war in the world. It cannot possibly be otherwise. And war grows in destructiveness as man learns how to make it more successfully—how to more completely destroy his enemy. Wherefore, if humanity really desires permanent peace it may have that peace if it will pay the price. Each individual must learn of the Prince of Peace how to annihilate the spirit of war in his own heart; he alone can do that, no one else can do it for him any more than others can quench his thirst for him. There is no other way towards disarmament.

THIRTY-TWO OF NATION'S GREATEST WAR HEROES TO VISIT LEGION CONVENTION AT KANSAS CITY

SOME OF THE WORLD WAR HEROES WHO WILL GO TO "KAYSEE"

By THOMAS WRIGLEY
Written for International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 29.—Thirty-two of the World War heroes who won the highest citation—the Congressional medal of honor—will attend the third annual national convention of the American Legion in this city October 31 and November 1 and 2.

Special plans have been made to entertain these heroes of America, and they will head the Legion parade of 40,000 marching men on the afternoon of the second day of the convention.

Congress awarded but seventy-eight medals for heroism in the World War. Some of the awards were posthumous. Only fifty-five of the heroes are living today.

These men, more than anyone else, established in the eyes of foreign armies the reputation of the American soldier. Their brave deeds were a pattern for recruits, and an assurance to the folks at home that America's soldiers would not quail under fire.

Here is the citation of Louis Van Iersal, of Passaic, N. J. It is noteworthy in view of the fact that he is entitled to wear thirteen United States and foreign decorations:

"While a member of the reconnaisances patrol, sent out at night to ascertain the condition of a damaged bridge, Sergeant Van Iersal volunteered to lead a party across the bridge in the face of heavy machine gun fire and rifle fire from a range of only seventy-five yards.

"Crawling alone along the debris of the ruined bridge, he came upon a trap which gave way and precipitated him into the water. In spite of the swift current, he succeeded in swimming across the stream and found a lodging place among the timbers on the opposite bank. Disregarding the enemy fire, he made a careful investigation of the hostile position by which the bridge was defended, and then returned to the other bank of the river, reporting this valuable information to the battalion commander."

These honor men have accepted the convention committee's invitation to attend the convention:

Joseph B. Adkinson, Memphis, Tenn.; Pvt. Charles D. Berger, 38th Infantry Co. D, Camp Pike, Ark.; John L. Barkley, Blairstown, Mo.; Frank J. Bart, Newark, N. J.; James C. Dozier, Rockhill, S. C.; Alan L. Eggers, New York City; Arthur J. Forrest, Hannibal, Mo.; Gary Evans Foster, Inman, S. C.; Harold A. Furlong, Detroit, Mich.; Earl D. Gregory, Chase City, Va.; Sidney G. Gumpertz, New York City; M. Waldo Hatler, Kansas City; Ralyn Hill, Byron, Ill.; Richmond Hilton, Kershaw, S. C.; August E. Jansen, New York City; Harold I. Johnston, Denver, Colo.; Philip C. Katz, San Francisco, Cal.; Benjamin Kaufman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Endurance Is First Demand of Car Owner, Says George Clayton

The fact that the majority of automobile owners regard the quality of endurance as the most important factor in the choice of a car is not surprising to George Clayton, local Dodge Brothers dealer. He was commenting on the survey just completed by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, which shows that endurance ranks first among 20,000 car owners to whom the questionnaire was sent, with comfort second and price third.

In the middle price group, which takes in the range from $500 to $3,000, 18 per cent of the total agree on endurance as the first essential, 11 per cent mention comfort first, and 10 per cent admit that they give first thought to the purchase price. Following is the complete list of preferences as disclosed by the survey:

1.	Endurance	18 %
2.	Comfort	11 %
3.	Price	10 %
4.	Appearance	9 %
5.	Economy	8 %
6.	Service	8 %
7.	Flexibility	7 %
8.	Hill Climbing	6 %
9.	Endorsements	6 %
11.	Speed	5½ %
10.	Specifications	6 %
12.	Appointments	5½ %

"In a man or a motor car," said the dealer, "it is this endurance, or ability to deliver the goods consistently, that wins out every time. In short, we feel that Dodge Brothers car not only comes up to all the requirements of those who give first consideration to endurance, comfort or price, but that it will sell itself, on its merits, to the majority of the people in the entire twelve classifications."

Charles B. Guthrie Preparing to Market Three Subdivisions

Charles B. Guthrie's real estate firm, 103½ South Brand boulevard, announces three new subdivisions will be placed on the market next week, and maps are now being prepared for the tracts. The subdivisions are: The A. B. Clement tract at the northwest corner of Pacific avenue and Sixth street; the Kipper tract on the Kenneth road, and the Tenth street boulevard tract at the corner of Tenth and Vine streets.

"Reservations are already coming in for many of these," said Mr. Guthrie, "and we do not think these tracts will last more than sixty days at the most."

IT NEVER COMES

"Seems to me Squidgely treated us rather coolly, considering how chummy he used to be with us in college."

"I thought he was cordial enough. Didn't he invite us to come up to his house for dinner some night?"

"Yes, but don't you know that 'some night' always means 'some other night?'"

"Huh!" grunted Mr. Oldbatch. "And she also has changeable hair, removable hips, adjustable eyebrows, colorable lips and a transferable complexion."

Weddings Are Fewer in New York, Report

NEW YORK—Figures obtained from the bureau of vital statistics show that only 41,811 marriages have taken place in New York city this year up to October. In the same nine months last year there were 48,983 marriages. This is considered surprising in view of reports showing big increases in marriages in nearly all other large American communities.

Michael J. Cruise, of the municipal marriage license bureau, says the New York housing situation is responsible for conditions here. Young men find the cost of establishing homes is practically prohibitive, and, rather than take brides to makeshift habitations, they simply don't marry.

BUILDING BOOM IN WEST UNDER WAY, REPORTS SHOW

Federal Reserve District Is Enjoying Prosperity; Aid From Glendale Helps

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—The building boom in the west is in full swing.

September building returns in the Twelfth Federal Reserve district, which includes California, Washington, Oregon, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Idaho, reached the highest point ever touched in the district, John Perrin, Federal Reserve agent, announced in his monthly report, made public today.

"Official reports from the building departments of twenty cities," said Mr. Perrin, "show 11,169 permits issued during September. With a valuation of $20,134,993, or an increase of 19 per cent in number and 17.6 per cent in value over September, 1920. Considering the decrease in the price level during the year, these figures represent a substantial increase in the physical volume of construction."

Easier Credit Shown

Other high lights in the report are:

Combined rediscounts of all country banks in the district show a steady decline.

Prompt marketing of abundant crops reflected in easier credit conditions.

September developed greatest volume lumber business for any month since May, 1920. Lumber production first week October reported 80 per cent of normal.

Both retail and wholesale trade experienced increased activity.

Early maturity northwest apple crop permitted shipments so far this season 200 per cent greater in amount than last year same date.

California raisin and prune producers have sold 1920 crop carryover and demand for new crop steady.

On account of the San Joaquin valley oil strike petroleum production in September was smallest in California in two and a half years.

The significance of the above report to Glendale is expressed by the following interviews with two local bankers:

A. R. EASTMAN, vice-president of the Glendale State Bank—Everything is looking towards a re-adjustment, as the report shows, and there is a general upward trend. Of course, if the railroad strike materializes it would be almost a calamity, but we are hoping the matter is settled. The bond market lately shows a stabilization, and the decrease in the combined rediscounts, as stated in the above report, shows every thing getting back to normal.

R. F. KITTERMAN, cashier First National Bank—Of course, Glendale has done and is doing its proportionate share, if not more, in the increased building activity. The decline in the combined rediscounts of all country banks is not only true of the Twelfth Federal Reserve district, but is also true of country banks all over the United States, which shows that credit is getting better and the institutions are getting on a more sound basis.

Woman's Age Point Up to High Court; Dispute to Continue

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The much-mooted question of whether a woman must tell her age when she appears at the precinct polling place to register will require a supreme court decision before it is solved to the satisfaction of all concerned. This question has perplexed election registrars ever since the ratification of the nineteenth amendment one year ago.

It has bobbed up in every section of the state. Women sensitive about their ages have protested to the election registrars when asked to give their correct ages. Some of the registrars have insisted that the women must give exact information. Others, who were a trifle in doubt, queried state election officials, who, in turn, quoted them the law.

Miss Elizabeth E. Warnock, of Pittsburg, has made the age question in the personal registration laws a court issue, which may result in the state's highest tribunal handing down an interpretation on the law as to whether a registrar can compel a woman who looks less than 30 years old and wants to pose as being less than 30 to admit that she is 35.

Miss Warnock went to her division polling place to register. She answered the questions all right until the registrar asked her how old she was. She said, "approximately 25," and refused to explain further. Thereupon the registrar struck her name from the list of registered voters.

Miss Warnock appealed the case to court, and Judge Drew, in the Allegheny county court, held the registrar was right, and added that, although some women may be sensitive about their ages, if they desire to vote they must give their correct ages. Miss Warnock was not at all satisfied and has announced through her counsel that the superior court will be asked to say whether she shall tell her age when she goes to register next time.

Germany Hard Hit by Get-Rich-Quick Gambling Projects

BERLIN—The government is trying to halt a gambling fever that has been sweeping Germany for many months and which, authorities say, continues to spread at a surprising rate despite hundreds of arrests, the confiscation of millions of marks, sentencing of scores of persons to jail and the imposition of heavy fines.

Close up on the heels of the gambling and speculation mania which appeared among the people of all classes, came a horde of stock market manipulators, racetrack touts, bucket shop proprietors and organizers of get-rich-quick betting associations, who, starting with a few men and women, shortly were able to open luxurious gambling houses.

At least a dozen such establishments operating in Berlin, Hamburg, Dresden and smaller provincial towns have been raided and closed by the police.

Sums as high as 12,000,000 marks have been found and confiscated by the police in gambling houses which apparently were catering only to the smaller gamblers. The proprietors have been held on charges of frauds.

The horseracing season, which has been unusually successful, offered the crooked gamblers and promoters a chance which they promptly took advantage of, and it is konwn billions of marks were wagered on alleged tips. Some of these promoters became widely known as "informants" and made so much money for their clientele that they became popular idols.

Following the breaking up of a number of the more prosperous betting clubs, the board of governors of the Grunewald Racetrack, near Berlin, which receives the patronage of hundreds of thousands of persons during the week, barred three of the best known jockeys for life and suspended others for alleged crooked riding, betting on other horses in races in which they rode and similar offenses.

Lion Act One Feature of Greater Sheesley Show

"I believe," said Captain Hart, head trainer with the Greater Sheesley Shows, "that no one appreciates the meaning of the words patience and perseverance as well as a trainer of wild animals. When I first began training the group of this show, I spent weeks in getting them accustomed to the contact with a human being before attempting to teach them any of the acts they now perform.

The animal act is one of the attractions with Sheesley's Shows, in Glendale November 7 to 12, under the auspices of the American Legion.

Chicago's Truant Officers Welcome Movies In Schools

CHICAGO—That the recently announced adoption of educational films for all of Chicago's schools will prove a distinct boon to truant officers, is the prophecy of William L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education, who declares that every new measure taken to increase the attractiveness of school work mirrored in the records of his department.

"In past years truancy presented far more of a problem than it does today," said Mr. Bodine. "The low truancy rate of recent years is explained not only by the rigid enforcement of the compulsory education law and the efficient work of truant officers, but by the fact that each year more is being done to make school appeal to boys and girls.

"Today truancy in Chicago amounts to barely one per cent of the enrollment. With only seventy-eight truant officers, we are covering an area of 200 square miles, with approximately 450,000 pupils in public and private schools combined. Slides are already being used in Chicago schools to a large extent, and with the addition of educational movies, which will be shown right in the class room in connection with the lesson, I look to see even that one per cent average considerably reduced. I am strongly in favor of visual education, because I realize that it will do much to promote attendance."

Lesson films on geography, history, health and nature-study, such as the Society for Visual Education among others is developing to correlate with the textbooks, will prove a powerful ally to teachers in arousing a real desire to go to school, he said.

"I have yet to see the boy or girl who does not like pictures," Mr. Bodine continued. "The average child begins to make pictures as soon as he is big enough to hold a pencil between his fingers. Visual education is born in us—it is a normal, natural thing."

C. E. RALLY AND SOCIAL

The "Four-Square" social and rally at the close of next week is the topic of discussion in local Christian Endeavor circles at present. Tomorrow night representatives of the Glendale District Christian Endeavor Union will visit the thirteen intermediate and senior societies in this division and remind them of the good program in prospect. The conferences are called "Four Square Rallies" because for four months the districts and societies are participating in a contest to see which can get the highest number of credits on the sixteen points allowed.

INSIGNIA FOR GRADUATES

Rings and lapel pins for the next graduating class of the Glendale Union High school are now being made by J. A. Robinson of Falder & Robinson, 204 East Broadway. The same design is upon the ring and the pin, both of which are of gold. The insignia, which is five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, consists of the wording "Glendale Union High School" in block lettering upon an outer circle with the numerals "22" in larger and bolder type in a centered hexagonal.

MRS. C. PUTNAM HOSTESS

Mrs. Claude Putnam of 424 North Glendale avenue entertained with a Halloween party yesterday afternoon for her daughters, Dorothy and Marjorie. Decorations of witches, cats, etc., were much in evidence. Favors of caps and aprons were given the girls and caps and mustaches for the boys. The afternoon was spent in playing games, after which a delightful supper was served the eighteen guests present.

PICTURES TO BE TAKEN

At a recent meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Business and Professional Women's club, of which Mrs. Margaret Biggs is president, it was decided to accept the invitation of the Dolberg Studio, 206 West Broadway, to take pictures free of charge of all members of that organization in order that it may compile a photographic album of all business women of Glendale.

Class Mothers Guests at Mrs. Andree's Home

Mrs. Andree and Mrs. Ambrosch were hostesses to the mothers of the B 7 II class of Intermediate school yesterday at the Andree home, 462 Pioneer drive.

They were assisted by Mrs. Kaiser. The women enjoyed meeting each other and planning what they could do to show their interest in the success of the school.

Cake and tea were served, also a box of delicious candy contributed by Miss Gladys Sharp, the class teacher, who was the guest of honor.

Those present were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Hoyt, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Fambrough, Mrs. Kaiser, Miss Sharp, Mrs. Andre and Mrs. Ambrosch. Mrs. Kulp, the president of the association, was also present.

Mrs. H. O. Melone Has Party for Daughter

Mrs. H. O. Melone of 309 Myrtle street is entertaining today from 3 to 5 o'clock for her little daughter, Vivian. The rooms are decorated in black and yellow, and the children were invited to come in Halloween costumes, which adds to the merriment of the occasion. A number of very entertaining games were prepared for the children in which they competed for prizes. Refreshments of orange ice cream, yellow cakes and dainty candies were served at a table prettily decorated with black and yellow and Halloween caps were favors.

Invited guests were Leone Rockhold, Narcisse Truitt, Virginia Endicott, Emma Torrey, Alice Ayers, Bernice Miller, Isabel Livingstone, Clara Roberts, Kathleen Custer, Martha McCourt, Darrel Cole and the little hostess, Vivian Melone.

Army and Navy Goods Store Will Open Here

W. C. Waring, who was formerly engaged in business in New York City, has taken a three-year lease on the storeroom now occupied by Davenport & Strother Realty agency at 219 South Brand boulevard, and he will open what is known as an Army and Navy Goods store. He expects to open about November 5.

Mr. Waring motored with his family from Montclair, New Jersey, his former home, making 6300 miles overland through Yellowstone and Yosemite national parks. They camped all of the way and within two days from the date they arrived in southern California they had picked Glendale as the most prosperous place in which to live. Mr. Waring bought the residence at 719 South Maryland avenue.
